A Voice in the Wilderness

God tells His servants in His Word, “Cry aloud, spare not. Lift up your voice like a trumpet and declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins!” (Isa.58:1, Parallel Amplified Bible).

God also declares: “Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her time of service and her warfare are ended, that [her punishment is accepted and] her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received [punishment] from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.”

We are living in a world gone berserk with anger and rage. “Why do the nations rage?” (Psalm 2:1). Answer – because they don’t know the true God, and are in rebellion against His laws and teachings and the true way of life and peace!

Isaiah wrote: “A voice of one who cries: Prepare in the wilderness the way of the Lord [clear away the obstacles]; make straight and smooth a highway for our God. . . . And the glory (majesty and splendor) of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it” (Isaiah 40:3-5).

The Messiah is coming very SOON! Its time to prepare to MEET Him! “Surely the Lord will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7). The purpose of this magazine is to warn the world of what lies ahead, and to help prepare people to get ready to meet the Messiah, when He returns to restore all things (Acts 3:19-21), put an end to wars, and usher in the Kingdom of God! The prophet Amos declared, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel” (Amos 4:12). No matter is more urgent, today!

The Mystery of Donald Trump

Despite the prognostications of the pundits and political wags, Donald Trump won the presidency against all odds – a miracle of miracles! What does the future hold under a Trump administration? Will Barack Obama go quietly into the sunset? Or has the fight just begun?

Already changes are being made in quick-time. Jobs are coming back to the U.S., plans are being made to move the American Embassy in Israel to Jerusalem, the capital, and Obama is following a “scorched earth” policy in refusing to back Israel at the United Nations.

2017 promises to be a year of change – triumph and tragedy, hope and despair, increased global suffering and war – and a time for increasing prayer and turning to God for salvation and deliverance.

Is Donald Trump “Anointed” by God as a Modern Cyrus?

Barack Obama will be 666 months of age on the final date he leaves office. Trump will be 70 years 7 months and 7 days old on Inauguration day (777). 2008 during the elections in that time the Dow fell 777.68 on the Feast of Trumpets. This is now the Hebrew year 5777. Donald J. Trump in English gematria is 888, the number for “Messiah.” What is the significance of his election as President of the United States?

William F. Dankenbring

Election eve 2016 began without any real sign of a gathering storm. No hint a popular revolt was brewing. In fact, just the opposite is true. The networks were reporting the mood in the inner circle of the Republican candidate was subdued, somber, tense, even foreboding – as if fearing the worst.

In direct contrast, the mood in the camp of the Democratic Party presidential candidate was described as confident, expectant and already almost celebratory. Even giddy. When the first polls closed on the East Coast and the first results began to come in, those moods seemed to be swiftly confirmed by reality. The pre-election polls were not wrong. Democratic Party nominee Hillary Clinton immediately took the lead.

And she was winning in the battleground states. She was leading in Florida. She was leading in North Carolina. She was leading in Pennsylvania. She was leading in Ohio. Clinton was threatening to pull away and end the suspense early.

At 7 p.m., there was no sign of a popular uprising led by Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump. There was no sign at 8 p.m. There was still no sign as time inexorably marched on.

Something would have to break. And then it did. Like a scene out of the film “It’s a Wonderful Life,” people had begun to pray.

But not just in one small town. Across America. And around the world.

Simple acts of faith heralded the first faint wisps of a breeze that would soon become a storm that would shake the world. It began in Jerusalem. Christians from many nations gathered in the heart of Israel to pray and fast for the fate of the United States. Americans knelt on stage as the faithful prayed. Organizers instructed them to pray like never before for a just God to deliver his most Christian nation. They called it the Jerusalem Global Gathering.

Christians also gathered to pray for the nation outside the U.S. Capitol. As WND reported, pastor Dan Cummins of the small rural East Texas town of Bullard led prayers for a return to biblical principles.

And it was in Texas that the prayers for deliverance were sent around the world, using modern technology.

A large prayer group had gathered in Dallas, hosted by Ken Copeland ministries. It was broadcast by the Daystar channel. Presenters David Barton and former Rep. Michele Bachmann, R-Minn., invited viewers to join in prayer. Daystar has a global reach of 400 million potential viewers.

“At the precise moment we began broadcasting on Daystar,” Bachmann told WND, “as the polls were still open, and a national audience of believers joined together and prayed in concert, we literally saw the race break in favor of Trump.”

“The Times put out a timeline tracking the election results as they broke for Trump last night,” Bachmann continued. “We went wild in the Dallas studio last night when David Barton, Ken and Terri Copeland, and various pastors saw that the victory for Trump began exactly at the precise moment believers corporately, over national television, sought the Lord for His favor upon our nation.”

“We knew it was at the exact same time that believers joined in corporate prayer on behalf of voting for a godly platform. Believers brought the Lord into this election, and that made all the difference,” added the devout believer.

“That is the story of last night’s victory. I have no doubt. The strong right arm of a holy God heard the prayers of His people and graciously answered our prayers,” Bachmann reflected.

“It truly explains the Trump victory. I have no doubt. No man can take the credit. Only the strong right arm of a merciful God.”

Trump benefited from the largest evangelical turnout in history. Exit polls showed that an overwhelming 80 percent of white evangelical voters (who made up 25 percent of all 2016 voters) supported Trump.

A Prophetic Picture of President Trump

Donald Trump has been elected as the 45th President of the United States. Interestingly, in Isaiah 45 God says, “Thus saith the Lord to Cyrus whom I’ve anointed.”

Nearly 150 years before Cyrus' birth, God declared through the prophet Isaiah that a foreign man, a non-Jew named Cyrus, would be the anointed shepherd of his people and rebuild Jerusalem, beginning in the first phase with the house of the Lord. Regarding Cyrus, Isaiah the prophet spoke as follows: “Thus says the Lord to Cyrus, His anointed, whose right hand I have held—to subdue nations before him and to loosen the loins of kings, to open doors before him so that the gates will not be shut: I will go before you and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze and shatter the bars of iron” (Is. 45:1-2).

Cyrus wasn't a Jew and he wasn't from the line of David, but God elevated this foreigner and called him ‘My anointed.’ When Isaiah described Cyrus as the Lord's ‘anointed,’ the word in Hebrew denotes a person specifically chosen and set apart for a specific task.

Then again, how else would you describe Cyrus, Churchill, Lincoln or even Reagan?

God promised to intervene and help Cyrus “break open” and even conquer. The commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem starts with Cyrus’ decree recorded in Ezra 1:1-4 to rebuild the house of the Lord. It was this “Cyrus decree” that worked its way through King Darius and King Artaxerxes until Nehemiah commenced his task to rebuild the wall surrounding Jerusalem.

These two phrases, “the house” and “the wall,” should make believers stop and wonder. This is a direct promise to the church and restoration to society. The controversy over “building the wall” in current-day politics is more symbolic than people think. What do walls represent in the Bible? Proverbs 25:28 says “He who has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down and without walls.”

America has become a nation without walls, a nation without self-government. We are out of control fiscally and physically on our borders. It reminds me of the prophetic statement of Lincoln, who warned that no foreign power would destroy us: “No, if destruction be our lot we must ourselves be its author and finisher. As a nation of free men we will live forever or die by suicide.”

“I have even called you by your name; I have named you, though you have not known Me” (Is. 45:4). “Have not known Me”?

Trump falls into a unique category of individuals. These are men and women who have the hand of Providence upon them. They are typically people whose singular strengths and convictions match a certain test in history—a crucible. As Churchill said,

“All my life was a preparation for this moment.” Figures like Churchill, Lincoln and George S. Patton don't step out of cathedrals onto the stage of history, yet we canonize them later as instruments God raised up to meet a singular crisis.

Curiously, none of them were the darling or favorite of contemporary Christians. Preachers thought Lincoln to be a godless skeptic; they stumbled over Churchill's cigars and scotch; they balked at Reagan's divorce and children from two marriages.

None of these instruments of providence rose through the ranks of evangelicals, yet each of them ended up as a defender of Christian values. This came home to me in the most shocking way as I replayed Trump's words. Like the Scottish heir to John Knox, he shouted back to the Vatican, “I am a Christian and I'm proud of it!”

Churchill himself framed the contest with Hitler as a “battle for Christian civilization” and insisted “Onward Christian Soldiers” be sung on board the ship where he and Roosevelt forged their alliance against the Axis powers. Lincoln quoted the Bible more than any other president, yet he refused to join any established church.

There is a Cyrus anointing on Trump. He is “God's trumpet.” He is the chaos candidate set apart to navigate us through the chaos that is coming to America.

“I think America is due for a shaking regardless of who is in office. I believe the 45th president is meant to be an Isaiah 45 Cyrus.”

With him in office, we have an authority in the Spirit to build the house of the Lord and restore the crumbling walls that separate us from cultural collapse. Even then, this national project is likely to be done, as Daniel prophesied, “in times of trouble” (Dan. 9:25).

Trump Himself Is Prophetic

Trump is more prophetic than most people realize. He is Churchillian in this regard. He sees the threat nobody else has courage to talk about until it's too late. He sees it with radical Islam, he sees it with the soaring $19 trillion debt, and he sees it in America's tinderbox of the inner city.

Trump accurately predicted by name that Brussels was no longer the same community he knew years ago. The press was picking apart his statement at the very moment Brussels became the epicenter of another round of organized terror and death. Likewise, Trump predicted the "Brexit," while expert commentators in media and government were stunned. Christians should take note of this.

Media in the post-Cleveland conference of the Republican Party described Trump's message as "dystopian" or dark. However, those who agree with Trump found the message encouraging simply because someone was finally telling the truth! A full 70 percent of Americans say the country is on the wrong track.

Trump is much like Churchill, lifting a warning voice about the unravelling of America at a time when the ruling class, buttressed by the media, want to deny there is anything wrong! In all likelihood, Trump is intuiting that which is on the horizon if changes are not made. Like Churchill, the opposition wants to exile him for sounding an alarm in his disturbingly blunt manner. The media assault on Trump is unprecedented.

Lance Wallnau is an internationally recognized speaker and business consultant, he is one of the premiere speakers on the subject of cultural transformation. (<http://www.charismanews.com/politics/opinion/60378-why-i-believe-trump-is-the-prophesied-president>).

A Prophetic Voice

For one Christian faith speaker, however, Trump is serving as an instrument of God and a modern “prophetic voice” to wake up America, which some prominent pastors have described as having strayed from Christian values.

In an editorial published on Charisma News, Os Hillman, president of Marketplace Leaders, said Trump was sent by God “to uncover the veil of the current political leadership and culture in America.”

Hillman, who is an internationally recognized speaker on the subject of faith at work, said Trump is exposing the morally corrupt ways of America's current leaders. “Trump is articulating what we all felt was under that veil—deception, lying, lack of accountability and pandering to what is politically correct. Trump is seeking to represent something that is the exact opposite,” the Christian faith speaker said.

The Christian speaker and author believes that God is trying to change this culture through Trump. “He [Trump] is espousing a new way of operating because he is sounding a trumpet to the nation that our nation is broken and needs to be fixed. He is becoming a new prophetic voice, albeit not necessarily spiritual, but certainly based on truth. What are those values?” Hillman said.

He also praised Trump for proposing specific actions against illegal immigrants, for speaking his mind although his views are unpopular, and for demanding accountability in our economic system of government. (Andre Mitchell_09 August 2015, Charisma Magazine).

Trump and Israel

Donald Trump plans to move the U.S. Embassy in Israel from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem — an official recognition by America of the Jewish state's capital, Morton Klein, president of the Zionist Organization of America, tells Newsmax TV.

“His advisers who are friends of mine tell me that he would really move the embassy to Jerusalem,” Klein, who served as an economist in the Nixon, Ford, and Carter Administrations, said Thursday to Steve Malzberg on “America Talks Live.”

Klein noted both Presidents Bill Clinton and George W. Bush made similar promises to move the U.S. embassy, which first opened in Tel Aviv in 1966. But he emphasized that Trump has written the “most pro-Israel policy statement in history.”

“He opposes the establishment of a Palestinian state. He says because this will be a terrorist state they promote hatred and violence in their schools, in their media and in their speeches. They name schools and streets and sports teams after Jew-killing terrorists,” Klein said.

Klein added that Mahmoud Abbas, president of the State of Palestine and Palestinian National Authority, gives pensions to the families of suicide bombers and “the more Jews they murder, the higher their pension. Can you believe this?”

Jerusalem's status as Israel's capital has long been in dispute because Palestinians insist it serve as the capital of their future state as well.

But Klein insisted the city has no special significance to the Palestinians. “Jerusalem is not holy to Muslims. This is a propaganda lie. ‘The holy text mentioned Jerusalem 700 times.’ The Koran, the Islamic holy text, never mentions Jerusalem a single time,” Klein explained.

“If it's so holy to them, why does their holiest book never mention Jerusalem and why from '48-'67 when they controlled all of eastern Jerusalem, why did they allow it to become a slum? There was no running water, no electricity, no plumbing. They destroyed the 58 synagogues and they made their capital in Iman not in Jerusalem.”

Klein said he is also confident that Trump will take a tough position against the United Nations, which has insisted that some of the Jewish people's holiest sites have nothing to do with Judaism.

“Trump said if the U.N. continues to promote these lies against Israel and bigotry against Israel like Jerusalem is not holy to Jews, he's going to cut funds to the U.N.,” he told Malzberg.

In addition, Klein said Trump is ready to take action in any violation of the Iranian nuclear deal. “The International Atomic Energy Association, this very morning announced that Iran is violating again. They're bringing in more nuclear-type equipment for nuclear bombs against the deal,” Klein said.

“President-elect Trump has said he will establish new sanctions, increase sanctions if this continues and that he will, if necessary ... make it clear to them that we'll use any means possible to make sure you do not get nuclear weapons. That means even threatening militarily. All you need is the threat of military action and this will scare the heck out of the Iranians because they'll believe and understand that he means it and he will allow Israel to do what they think appropriate militarily, so Iran will no longer have the protections they had before. So he can scare them into finally maybe complying with this deal.”

Trump in Bible Gematria

Gematria, or Hebrew numerology, is an esoteric device used by rabbis for revealing hidden meaning in the Bible. When applied to the US presidential candidates, the results are absolutely shocking and carry serious implications about the role of the election in the imminent Messianic era.

Joe Gallis and Dr. Robert Wolf lectured and wrote for almost two decades on Torah-related topics. One of their specialties was using Gematria to understand current events. In 2009, after Hillary Clinton lost the Democratic primaries to Barack Obama, they predicted on their blog, Redemption 5768, that her influence on Israel and the Messianic process was far from over. They used the numerology of her name to come to this remarkable conclusion.

Gallis and Wolf calculated that Hillary (הירליה), Rodham (מהדור), and Clinton (זוטנילק) each equal 255. The word for a female from the nation of Amalek (היקלמע) is also 255. Amalek is the archetypical evil that Israel is commanded to oppose anywhere and at any time.

The total of all three of her names is 765 (255 x 3), which is the same value as תע הרצ (“time of terrible distress”). The term תע הרצ comes from the Book of Daniel, which describes the time when Michael, the guardian angel of Israel, will stand in defense of his people at a time of catastrophe.

“And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since the beginning of the world” (Daniel 12:1).

Hillary Rodham Clinton is also the Gematria of כלה בַּחֲמֵתָהּ (daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law), which is seen in a verse in Micah.

“For the son dishonoureth the father the daughter riseth up against her mother the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man’s enemies are the men of his own house” (Micah 7:6).

Hillary Clinton has frequently been quoted in the media saying harsh and demeaning things about her deceased mother-in-law, even blaming her abuse for Bill Clinton’s infidelity. Her connection with the verse hints at negative family values in general.

The Torah website Yeranen Yaakov points out that the gematria of Donald Trump (פמארט דלנוד) is 424, or 212 x 2. The gematria of Bernie Sanders (סרדנס ינרב) is 636, or 212 x 3. Yeranen Yaakov quotes the Ben Ish Chai, an authority on Jewish law and master Kabbalist who lived in Baghdad 150 years ago. The Ben Ish Chai interpreted the number 212 as a difficult time for Israel before the Final Redemption.

“There are 212 hours in the first 9 days of Av (the eleventh month in the Jewish calendar) that are meant to be bad for the Jewish people,” Yeranen Yaakov wrote. “Although the 9 days contain 216 hours, the final 4 hours of Tisha B’Av (the ninth of Av) are sweetened since that is when Messiah is to be born.”

Yeranen Yaakov interprets this to mean that a Donald Trump (424) presidency will be doubly bad for the Jewish people, while a Bernie Sanders (636) presidency will be triply bad for the Jewish people. But in either case, the dark period is the anticipated necessary step immediately preceding the Messiah.

It is also remarkable to note that Donald Trump (424) is the Gematria of “Messiah for the House of David” (דוד נב הישמ). That is not to say that Donald Trump is the Messiah, but that his presidency will usher in the Messianic era.

Gematria is not an exact science; it is famously open to interpretation. However, it is a widely used and generally accepted system of understanding the hidden meaning and layers of the word of God as written in the Hebrew Bible. It is studied and taught by a multitude of major rabbis and Jewish thinkers. It has been a part of Biblical interpretation, with examples in the Mishna (the oral law) dating from the first century, and in later times became the realm of Kabbalists. While Gematria cannot predict the outcome of the U.S. presidential election, there is no question that the Bible has something to say about our modern world.

Is Donald Trump a Messiah-Like Figure?

Donald Trump has been called a lot of things. “Messiah” probably isn’t one of them. However, a Jewish rabbi from New Jersey made that claim, making clear in the process that he didn’t see the GOP presidential nominee as the Messiah but rather a messiah.

Rabbi Mendel Kessin, during a lecture shared in late August, said Trump will play the role of a “messiah-like figure” leading America, which he sees as leader of Western Christianity, into its role as the rehabilitated biblical Esau – a righteous nation that repents of its past sins and becomes a helper of Israel.

Trump, the GOP nominee for president, will be a factor in the end of days in America by reflecting the “rehabilitation of biblical Esau,” said Kessin.

The rabbi's lecture, which took place in Lakewood, New Jersey, begins with Esav, also called Esau, the twin brother of Jacob, who is portrayed in the Old Testament as a persecutor of the Jews.

Yet Kessin, speaking about the spiritual underpinnings of the 21st century, suggests that, at the last days, the biblical Esav [Western Christianity] will be rehabilitated with the United States leading the way.

Kessin connects Esav throughout history to Edom, Rome, Christianity, Western civilization and, ultimately, to the United States.

“At the end of days, the rabbi contends that the sins of Esav will be removed and Esav will become God-fearing,” writes Rivkah Lambert Adler for Breaking Israel News. “Esav has in Jewish tradition been associated with oppressing, persecuting and afflicting the Jews, but at the end of days he will undergo a fundamental change in his character.”

Rather than harming Jews, Esav will turn toward serving the Jews, assisting them in doing God's will in the form of mitzvot (biblical commandments), Adler reports. “As a result, Esav will be rehabilitated and earn a place in the world to come.”

Kessin believes Trump has a critical role to play in purifying the U.S. “What I believe is that the one who is going to switch from [Esav persecuting the Jews] to [Esav serving the Jews] is Donald Trump,” he says. “He's going to purify Edom.”

At the 43-minute mark of the lecture, Kessin says the Hebrew numerical value of Donald Trump is the same as that of Moshiach ben David (Messiah son of David). He quickly assures his listeners that Trump is not the long-awaited Messiah of the Jewish people. At the same time, Kessin plainly asserts that Trump has the qualities of a messiah-like figure.

“Someone who will turn a nation completely, diametrically opposite is a messiah,” Kessin says. “He further contends that good times will return to the U.S. under the leadership of Trump because “Peace and prosperity must happen in order to rehabilitate the Jews in America, to prepare them for Moshiach (Messiah).”

‘Coming out of nowhere’

Using three biblical examples, Kessin builds his case that Trump is a messiah-like figure. First off, “A messianic figure is always despised,” he argues. He cites Joseph, who was imprisoned; Moses, who had to run away from Pharaoh to escape being killed; and King David, who was rejected many times in his lifetime.

“Many messianic figures, they come out of nowhere . . . Everybody is expecting the Moshiach to be this incredible (righteous individual), incredible gadol (great person), unbelievable talmid chacham (Torah scholar),” he said. “Yeah, eventually he will be. But he's the guy that you don't even look at twice. That's who a Moshiach is. And you find all the (messianic figures) were always despised...

"That's why there's so much opposition to Trump. Because he's about to start something which is a major reversal of the job of Esav from [oppression of the Jews] to [serving the Jews]."

Trump as a great reformer

Carl Gallups, a Baptist pastor in Florida, radio talk-show host and author of several Christian books including "Be Thou Prepared," comments on Rabbi Kessin's observations. He says, "I think the main thrust of Rabbi Kessin's message is that, somehow, Yahweh [Yehovah] might be in the process of using Donald Trump to bring about some much-needed biblical reformation to the United States and, thus, the world."

"I think he is also hoping and praying, along with much of the Jewish and Christian world, that Trump might be used of God to restore the United States to being a great friend and protector of Israel. This is especially true as we see the miraculously returned Israel now surrounded with nations on every side that are plotting its ultimate demise."

"People all over the globe have a sense of urgency, expectancy, and trepidation about the future," he said. "Even people who don't claim to be 'believers' or Christians, even those who never go to church or read the Bible are asking, 'What's wrong with the world? Why is the Middle East the center of such huge international turmoil? Are we on the verge of World War III?'"

Gallups said he understands what Kessin is trying to say, viewing Trump in many ways as the antithesis of President Obama.

"He's looking at it in the same way that a number of Christians and even biblical scholars have examined Obama's journey, candidacy, and eight-year presidential legacy and point out his clearly 'antichrist' characteristics without ever believing him to be, or declaring him to be, the actual antichrist," Gallups said. "I don't think there is anything unbiblical about examining the times in which we live, and the world-impacting leaders of our times, and noting the biblical characteristics of those that Yahweh [Yehovah] may be using for His ultimate purposes in our highly prophetic era."

"I also find it remarkable," Gallups added, "that Rabbi Kessin outlined the qualities of a messianic figure as being that of a powerful person, a great person, a biblical scholar, a righteous individual, and one who is at the same time also ubiquitously despised, while seemingly coming 'out of nowhere.' These very same things can be said of the real and ultimate Messiah, Yeshua/Jesus."

"I feel for Rabbi Kessin. I know he understands that we are now living in profoundly prophetic times. I get that. I am continually writing about and speaking to this issue as well – all over the world. There certainly seems to be something very numinous about this year’s presidential election. It may be the most important one in the history of the United States and, thus, the world. And with that feeling – he is looking for answers, and possible biblical connections.” (see www.wnd.com/2016/09/trump-as-american-messiah-rabbi-says-yes).

The Bible Codes

Rabbi Matityahu Glazerson, an international Bible codes expert who has written 30 books, said it’s a fait accompli for Donald Trump. He would beat Hillary Clinton on Nov. 8 and go on to become the next president of the United States, and of course he did exactly that to the amazement of the world.

Glazerson sees Trump as a leader in the mold of Cyrus the Great of Persia, who helped free the Jewish people from Babylonian captivity in Old Testament times. They were then able to rebuild the Temple in Jerusalem.

Any international leader who helps the Jewish people is a type of “moshioch” or a messiah figure, he says in a three-minute video posted in late October to YouTube. Not the Messiah but a messiah.

Glazerson says “anybody who helps Israel, to build themselves, to settle properly in their land,” is referred to as a kind of moshiaich.

This is the second video the rabbi has made about Trump’s appearance in the Bible code.

BIBLE CODES SHOW DONALD TRUMP AS 45TH PRESIDENT

The bible codes show that Donald Trump will become the 45th president of the United States of America. Donald Trump (born June 14, 1946) is an American businessman, television personality, author, and politician. He is chairman of The Trump Organization, which is the principal holding company for his real estate ventures and other business interests. He is also the nominee of the Republican Party for President of the United States in the 2016 election.

Analysis of bible codes found in the books of Genesis and Isaiah show that Donald Trump will defeat Hillary Clinton for the presidency. The words president, states, and 2017 were found encoded. The most interesting thing about the codes found in the book of Isaiah, which was discovered by the legendary Rabbi Glazerson, is that they were discovered in Isaiah chapter 45:1. The passage reads “Thus says the Lord to His anointed, To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held— To subdue nations before him And loose the armor of kings, To open before him the double doors, So that the gates will not be shut” (NKJV). Isaiah’s Cyrus prophecy was made over 200 years before Cyrus was born (576 BC – 530 BC). According to the historian Herodotus, Cyrus was the son of Cambyses I. He came to the Persian throne in 559 BC. Nine years later he conquered the Medes, thus unifying the kingdoms of the Medes and the Persians. According to Flavius Josephus, Cyrus later conquered the Babylonians in 538 BC. Cyrus the Great was the Persian King under whom the Jewish Babylonian captivity ended. He made a decree that the Temple in Jerusalem should be rebuilt and Jews can return to their land for this purpose.

Analysis of the Codes

If these codes are real and not accidental codes, then Donald Trump's presidency will be similar to a modern Cyrus of Persia. This means that Trump will become a greater friend to American Christians, Christians worldwide, and the Jews living in the Middle East and particularly those Jews living in the land of Israel. Trump, who is a great builder, may play a significant role in facilitating the construction of the next Jewish Temple in Israel.

The name Donald originates from a Scottish and Celtic word meaning world ruler. The name Trump means victory or triumphant. The name Trump is also associated with the word for trumpet. A few eschatology researchers speculate that the Lord may rapture His Church during the successful presidential administration of Donald Trump or during the administration of a future American president name Trump. Only time will reveal if this speculation about Donald Trump is truth.

Finally, whoever becomes the 45th president of the United States of America must do four things. First, the president must not divide the land of Israel because God will have to judge any leader who seeks to divide His land. Second, the president must cleanse the nation of corrupt judges. He must select righteous God fearing Judges to the US Supreme Court. Third, the president must protect the most vulnerable citizens in America, which are the unborn boys and girls inside the womb. And fourth, the president must promote the traditional family, led by a man and a woman because children have a right to a father and a mother.

Judaism's greatest mystical text 'predicts Trump victory'

Times of Israel, Nov.2, 2016, reports that an unnamed ultra-Orthodox expert on the seminal 'Zohar' work, Marc Zell, says Trump campaign staffers in US were 'amazed' at the news that Judaism's ancient text, the Zohar, appears to have predicted a Trump victory in the presidential race in the United States.

The head of the Republican Party's branch in Israel told an ultra-Orthodox website that an unnamed but "great" Jewish mystic told him Judaism's major mystical work predicts an election victory for Donald Trump.

Attorney Marc Zell, head of Republicans Abroad Israel, told Yanky Farber, a columnist for Behadrei Haredim, "But in the last two weeks, a decision has been made among the rabbis of all sorts of streams in the Haredi public in Israel that Trump is the one who will defend Jerusalem, the Land of Israel and the Jewish people."

He then told Farber that a mekubal, or sage steeped in the Jewish mystical tradition of Kabbalah, had informed him that according to the tradition's seminal text, the Zohar, Trump will be the next president of the United States.

“Two days ago, a great mekubal came to me — I don't want to say his name — with all his entourage from Bnei Brak, just to give me this message for Donald Trump,” Zell reportedly said. “According to the rabbi, the Zohar says Donald Trump will win next week. The rabbi didn't ask for anything, but just wanted to send this message.”

Zell said he “passed this on to the Trump campaign in the US and the Jewish advisers were amazed, in a good way, about this news.”

He recalled comments made last month by Trump's Israel adviser, David Friedman, according to which Trump, if elected, would fire any American official who opposed an order to move the US embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Everyone says they'll move the embassy to Jerusalem. American law requires moving the embassy, but all the presidents vetoed it, arguing it would hurt American security.”

Trump is different, Zell insisted. “That's Donald Trump. He comes from outside the establishment and doesn't think like a run-of-the-mill politician. He says what he thinks.”

The mysterious mystic was not the only Haredi leader cited by Zell as supporting Trump. The head of a major Jerusalem cheder, or religious elementary school, “came to vote today,” Zell said. “He told me he had decided to vote, and explained to his students why he did so — because of the values of the Republican Party, belief in the Creator of the world and family values. I feel we have something in common.”

The Behadrei Haredim report concluded by quoting a Haredi halachic authority, Rabbi Sraya Deblitzky, who told his followers to “vote for the man. If a woman rules, it brings judgment, death and poverty.”

The Miracle Election

The years ahead promise to be years of tumult, confusion, violence and unparalleled strife and suffering. America stands at a crossroads. The fate of the country lies in the balance. The scales of Justice and Judgment are looming over us. The world outlook has never looked so scary, so frightening, so horrific and contentious.

America has now elected Donald J. Trump to be the next president of the United States. His presidency will be facing many obstacles and dire economic problems and world troubles. His ascendancy to power will give America a “reprieve” – a period of “grace” and “mercy” – and more time in which to repent of our national and personal sins and to return to God. It is a sign of God's blessing on Israel and His favor for His people.

Joseph Farah of WorldNetDaily described the phenomenon this way: “He was eviscerated by the media establishment unlike any previous presidential candidate.

“It wasn’t just “bias” he faced. He battled Democratic apparatchiks posing as reporters, editors, producers and anchors. He was savaged by the official Democratic Party. And he was beaten up by his own party’s establishment. Still, Donald Trump fought back. He improvised. He overcame.

“No candidate ever had more tangible assets in her political piggy bank than did Hillary Clinton – money, organization, dirty tricks, betrayal by the opposition, the “press” in her pocket. At the end of the long night, it didn’t matter. America decided it was time for a change.

“But, I like to think God smiled on America, maybe because of the prayers of so many forgotten people – people who began to wake up and realize they just didn’t recognize their country any more.”

Is Hillary Clinton Finished?

When Hillary Rodham Clinton lost the Democratic Nomination for President to Barack Hussein Obama, many thought that she would disappear from the world stage for years. But her name in Hebrew hinted that something different would happen. Attention was gained by her unique name expressed in Hebrew letters. Never before did researchers see the following occur in anyone's name. Hillary הירליה, Rodham בהדור, and Clinton וויטנילק each have a gematria of 255. Imagine that a person's first name, middle name and last name all have the same exact value! When the value of the entire name is calculated, the total gematria is 765 (255x3), the same value as הרצ תע (Time of terrible distress).

This finding indicated that Hillary would not disappear into the sunset so quickly. She would be (as she has become) an influential voice reprimanding the State of Israel. The term הרצ תע comes from the Book of Daniel 12(1) which describes the time when Michael, the guardian angel of Israel, will stand in defense of his people at this time of catastrophe. The atbash gematria of הרצ תע is 106, the same value as the letter נ nun, spelled out וּנ.

No verse in the Ashrei prayer (Psalm 145) begins with the letter נ nun. There are 21 verses in this psalm and each verse (in order) begins with the remaining 21 letters of the Hebrew aleph bet. This is because in the verse that speaks of G-d supporting the fallen, the letter נ can be taken as an allusion to the word הליפנ, Israel's future downfall, G-d forbid. King David refused to use a letter to begin a verse that could suggest such tragedy. But knowing that downfalls must take place as they have throughout our history, King David comforted Israel with the verse that begins with the letter ס samech (the letter that follows the nun in the Hebrew alphabet). The full verse beginning with the samech states "Hashem supports all the fallen ones and straightens all those who are bent." With this verse, King David made a guarantee to the Jewish People that even when a dreaded

Today, the leader of Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu וְהִינַחֵנוּ יְיָ מִיָּנֹכַח, has not one, but 4 nuns in his name, representing the 4 exiles of the Jewish People. We have gone from one exile to another, falling down and then being lifted up by Hashem. We kept falling into galus because we would not learn from our mistakes and make adjustments in our lives. The purpose of falling is to arise and lift ourselves to a higher level, not to the same plane. When G-d tests us in our personal lives and we fall down through illness, financial setbacks or personal tragedy, we must pull ourselves not only back to where we were before the fall, but to greater heights.

In a previous blog that we posted on 5/25/09 dealing with The Blessing Of The Sun, we mentioned that our calculation of Daniel's famous "Time, Times and a half of Time," resulted in a time being 32, times being 64, and a half being 16. Thus, 112 represents the entire end period. Of course, no one knows whether it's 112 hours, days, weeks or years from a point in time. This will be revealed by Hashem in due course. The question arises why 3 1/2 and not 4? Shouldn't there be a relationship between the 4 exiles and the final time period releasing us from exile permanently? If the other half (16) would be added on, the total time period would rise to 128 which would equal the word דָּמוּם, "to support."

Perhaps our redemption is being held up by the imperfect 3 1/2. Perhaps our redemption will be realized when we can turn the imperfect 3 1/2 into 4 (representing all our exiles). How can we do this? When we finally push our arrogance aside and acknowledge that it wasn't because of our merits, or our actions, or the actions of our leaders or our armies that brought us out of our previous exiles, but by the HAND OF G-D that saved us over and over again. Then we can finally change the 3 1/2 time period into 4 complete periods and adjust the total value from 112 to 128. For it has always been Hashem that supports us like a parent encouraging, lifting up and supporting their child learning to walk. It has always been our Father In Heaven, and it's time to acknowledge that. The 16 (1/2 of time) that has been missing equals דִּיב (by a hand). We must realize that to survive the terrible Time of Distress that the Jewish People will shortly face, we must grab and hold on to Hashem's Hand.

The letter ד is the 14th letter in the aleph bet. This is the gematria of דָּוִד (David) whose descendant will shortly be sent by G-d to redeem us. May we all dance with joy when that wonderful moment arises.

Trump Victory Divinely Sent?

“Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a prince and commander to the peoples.” (Isaiah 55:4, The Israel Bible)

Donald Trump's upset victory in the presidential race over Hillary Clinton, who was heavily favored in virtually all the pre-election polls, seemed to defy the laws of nature, reason and sense. Several rabbis have an explanation, however: it was, quite simply, the will of God.

As the rabbi who oversees the final resting place of King David on Mount Zion, Rabbi Yosef Berger is intimately connected to the spirituality of kingship. For him it was clear what tipped the scales in favor of the Republican underdog.

“I have known for months that Donald Trump would win the elections,” Rabbi Berger told Breaking Israel News. “The gematria (numerology) of his name is Moshiach (Messiah). He is connected to the Messianic process which is happening right now. When he promised to move the American Embassy to Jerusalem, he attached himself to the power of Moshiach, which gave him the boost he needed. If you separate from Jerusalem, disaster will follow.”

When taking the gematria into account, it was clear that Trump had a spiritual edge. As Rabbi Berger pointed out, the gematria for Donald Trump in Hebrew (דלנוד פמארט) is 424, which is equal to the gematria of “Messiah for the House of David” (חישמ דוד ןב). The Ben Ish Chai, an authority on Jewish law and master kabbalist who lived in Baghdad 150 years ago, interpreted the number 212 as a difficult time for Israel before the Final Redemption. Trump’s gematria is twice that, signifying an ongoing Messiah process.

Rabbi Berger was clear on how this election fit into the process of Messiah. “As the spiritual descendant of the Biblical nation of Edom, America has a very important role to play in the Messiah. But in order to be suited for that role, America had to be humbled,” Rabbi Berger stated.

“In order to establish his kingdom, God had to create confusion, a situation in which the best plans laid by the most powerful people, comes to nothing.”

The rabbi quoted the well-known proverb:

A man’s heart deviseth his way; but Hashem directeth his steps. Proverbs 16:9

“This outsider, whose own party rejected him, despised by the media, won despite what the experts predicted,” Rabbi Berger said.

As spokesman for the nascent Sanhedrin, Rabbi Hillel Weiss, also saw God’s interest in Israel as part of the election. He said that Trump’s victory was, in part, a reaction to President Barack Obama’s Israel policies.

“President Obama made himself a very visible part of the campaign. It is clear that Hashem (God) was part of the political process, using it to punish President Obama and those who were working to harm Israel,” Rabbi Weiss told Breaking Israel News.

“By allowing Iran to establish a nuclear program which is clearly not for peaceful purposes, by standing aside and allowing the UN to make resolutions to harm Israel, Obama established himself as an enemy of Israel.”

“All of the academics and the media, who create their own world with evil words, they worked against Trump,” continued Rabbi Weiss. “They tried to create a man-made reality in which Trump could not win. In the end, it did not work. Hashem is moving us towards a greater Jerusalem, and anyone who goes against that, is destined to fail.”

Trump’s slim margin of triumph and the fact that throughout the hotly contested campaign, Clinton consistently led in most pre-election polls made his victory even more stunning.

At one point, Clinton led with a double digit advantage of up to 17 points. A CNN poll in June predicted a Clinton landslide victory by 24 percent. Indeed, up until the day before the elections, major polls were giving the Democratic candidate a five percent edge. Though Trump won the electoral college by a wide margin (279 as compared to Clinton’s 218), the popular vote told a very different story, with Clinton actually winning by one percent.

In an election of such import, the margin was tiny. With the future of a world superpower in the balance, it was clear that such an upset victory, flying in the face of conventional politics, media predictions, and the expectations of international leaders, not to mention many Americans, was entirely due to an outside influence.

Is Donald Trump a Divine Messenger?

A Christian minister in Florida has ignited a firestorm over his suggestion that God is using Donald Trump as a divine instrument in the 2016 presidential election cycle.

In a column published in Charisma magazine, Jeremiah Johnson of Behold the Man Ministries in Lakeland, Florida, said he was praying several weeks ago “when God began to speak to me concerning the destiny of Donald Trump in America:”

The Holy Spirit spoke to me and said, “Trump shall become My trumpet to the American people, for he possesses qualities that are even hard to find in My people these days. Trump does not fear man nor will he allow deception and lies to go unnoticed. I am going to use him to expose darkness and perversion in America like never before, but you must understand that he is like a bull in a china closet.

Many will want to throw him away because he will disturb their sense of peace and tranquility, but you must listen through the bantering to discover the truth that I will speak through him. I will use the wealth that I have given him to expose and launch investigations searching for the truth. Just as I raised up Cyrus to fulfill My purposes and plans, so have I raised up Trump to fulfill my purposes and plans prior to the 2016 election.

You must listen to the trumpet very closely for he will sound the alarm and many will be blessed because of his compassion and mercy. Though many see the outward pride and arrogance, I have given him the tender heart of a father that wants to lend a helping hand to the poor and the needy, to the foreigner and the stranger.”

Johnson cited the specific Old Testament example of God personally selecting the non-believing, pagan King Cyrus to work on His behalf, as recounted in the 45th chapter of the Book of Isaiah.

Johnson added: “As the body of Christ, we must keep our ears and eyes open as we continue to move toward the 2016 elections in the United States. I believe that God is not only going to use the prayers of the saints to bring about His plans and purposes, but He is even going to use those who do not know Him. What a great comfort and source of encouragement we have in the wisdom of God in this hour.”

Trump and the Temple

The nascent Sanhedrin is calling on Russian President Vladimir Putin and US president-elect Donald Trump to join forces and fulfill their Biblically-mandated roles by rebuilding the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem.

Rabbi Hillel Weiss, spokesman for the Sanhedrin, contacted Breaking Israel News to announce that the election of Trump, who has promised to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, coupled with Putin’s expressed desire for the Temple to be rebuilt, prompted the Jewish court to send a letter offering the two the opportunity to act as modern-day Cyrus figures: non-Jewish kings who recognize the importance of Israel and the Temple.

Cyrus the Great, King of Persia in the sixth century BCE, announced in the first year of his reign that he was prompted by God to make a decree that the Temple in Jerusalem should be rebuilt.

Cyrus sent the Jews under his rule back to Israel with a considerable sum of money with which to rebuild the Temple. The Sanhedrin plans to call on the two world leaders to take up this ancient Biblical decree and support the Jewish people in their holy mission.

Rabbi Weiss explained that the US elections have made the eternal Jewish dream a very real possibility. “We are poised to rebuild the Temple. The political conditions today, in which the two most important national leaders in the world support the Jewish right to Jerusalem as their spiritual inheritance, is historically unprecedented,” Rabbi Weiss told Breaking Israel News.

The Sanhedrin’s letter notes that Trump’s upset victory was due to his support of Jerusalem, and reminds Trump of his campaign promise to move the US embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, effectively recognizing the city as the capital of Israel. The Jerusalem Embassy Act, passed in Congress in 1995, initiated the moving of the embassy, but has been vetoed by every American president since. The Sanhedrin calls on Trump to withhold the veto after he takes office.

The Sanhedrin also recalled Putin's connection to the Temple in its letter. During his third official trip to Jerusalem in 2012, Putin paid a late-night visit to the Kotel (Western Wall). When he arrived at the holy site, the Russian leader stood in silence for several minutes, offering up a personal prayer, after which he read Psalms from a Russian-Hebrew prayer book.

An Israeli bystander called out in Russian, "Welcome, President Putin." Putin approached the man, who explained the importance of the Temple Mount and the Jewish Temple. Chadrei Charedim, an Orthodox Hebrew news site, reported that Putin responded, "That's exactly the reason I came here – to pray for the Temple to be built again."

After this remarkable exchange, the Sanhedrin sent a letter to Putin calling on him to fulfill his prayer. At the time, President Putin did not respond to the Sanhedrin's request, but now that the incoming US president is a potential ally in the project, the Sanhedrin believes it is time for Putin to take an active role in rebuilding the Temple.

In addition to its requests concerning the Temple, the Sanhedrin is also calling on Putin and Trump to renew the 1920 League of Nations resolution known as the San Remo treaty, which essentially enabled the creation of a Jewish State by dividing the Ottoman Empire. It incorporated the Balfour Declaration, issued by Great Britain in 1917, which gave official recognition and backing for the establishment of Israel.

US President Calvin Coolidge ratified the San Remo agreement in 1925, thus making recognition of a Jewish State legally binding by US law. The Sanhedrin emphasized that it is imperative at this time, when the Palestinian Authority is attempting to rewrite world history by campaigning against the Balfour declaration, to strengthen the historic American commitment to the State of Israel by readopting the agreement.

Rabbi Weiss emphasized that supporting the Jewish claim to Jerusalem would bring benefit to Russia and America, as well as the entire world.

"The leaders of Russia and America can lead the nations of the world to global peace through building the Temple, the source of peace," Rabbi Weiss explained. "This will offset the disgraceful UNESCO resolutions that are the root cause of increasing terror and violence."

Last month, the United Nations Educational, Cultural and Scientific Organization (UNESCO) passed two resolutions denying any connection between the city of Jerusalem and the Jewish people, ceding to Islam a religious monopoly on many of Judaism's holiest sites.

Fun and Games

Notice the following Hebrew gematria of the name of Donald Trump.

DONALD =

ד ל א נ ו ד

4 30 1 50 6 4 / total = 95

The book of Daniel speaks of the “Time of the End.” And the name Daniel = 95

DANIEL=

ל א י נ ד

30 1 10 50 4 / total = 95

TRUMP =

80 40 1 200 9 / total = 330

Trump is a “billionaire”; he represents the “wealthy elite” of our present world (the global financial system). The value of his last name has the same value for Wall Street.

WALL STREET =

ט י ר ט ס ל ו ו

9 10 200 9 60 30 6 6 / total = 330

The meaning of the name Donald Trump is striking. According to the website <http://baby-names.familyeducation.com/celebrities/t/517>

Donald / First name origin: Old English / first name means “Ruler of the world.”

Trump / Last name: Metonymic occupational name for a trumpeter, from Middle English trumpe – trumpet.

Now let’s multiply each Hebrew letter value of the first name and the last name of Donald Trump. We will drop the zeros as they are just place holders. Therefore we will only multiply the numbers. Then we will take these values and add them together to get a total sum. The end result is startling!

Donald = 95

4 30 1 50 6 4 / total = 95

4 x 3 x 1 x 5 x 6 x 4 = 1440

Trump = 330

80 40 1 200 9 / total = 330

8 x 4 x 1 x 2 x 9 = 576

Donald 1440 + 576 Trump = 2016 – the very year when he was elected President of the United States of America on November 8!

This is an amazing mathematical “coincidence” to be sure! The formula doesn’t produce any other year – only the year of 2016! And amazingly it was done with the Hebrew spelling of Donald Trump’s name.

Was this done by Divine design – as a heavenly SIGN – using the Hebrew language of Donald Trump’s name?

Is this one of the SIGNS that we are living in the TIME OF THE END? Is this a sign that the Apocalypse is right around the corner?

Is Donald Trump prophesied to rise up in the Bible and perform mighty deeds in the “end of days,” before he is “taken out of the way” by the clandestine forces of evil of the New World Order who seek to unite the world’s nations against God and Christ?

God says, in II Thessalonians 2:7-10, “For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work’ only he who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved” (II Thess.2:7-10, NKJV).

Could this “restraining influence” be the presidency of Donald J. Trump and his vigorous defense of Israel and American sovereignty?

Has God given us a few more years to PREPARE for the end of the world as we know it and the coming of the Messiah, Son of David, Yeshua Ha Moshiach, Jesus the Christ, to set everything right and to restore all things? (Acts 3:1-21).

U.S. to Move Embassy to Jerusalem!

Jerusalem, a Burdensome Stone

Once again, Jerusalem, Israel is in the news! President Donald Trump is already sending top advisers to Israel to find a site to relocate the U.S. Embassy in Jerusalem, Israel's eternal capital! Arab states are fuming. But true Christians and Jews are rejoicing and leaping for joy! Once again Jerusalem is taking the center stage of world history! This is another sign that the coming of the Messiah is imminent!

William F. Dankenbring

“The burden of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, who stretches out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him: ‘Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of drunkenness to all the surrounding peoples, when they lay siege against Judah and Jerusalem. ³And it shall happen in that day that I will make Jerusalem a very heavy stone for all peoples; all who would heave it away will surely be cut in pieces, though all nations of the earth are gathered against it. In that day,’ says the LORD, ‘I will strike every horse with confusion, and its rider with madness; I will open My eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness’” (Zech.12:1-4).

Jerusalem is once again to become the center of world attention. According to a report by Israeli media, Donald Trump’s presidential team is already in Jerusalem scouting sites for the new building for the American Embassy in Israel.

When Donald Trump announced that he was committed to moving the American Embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem, many “talking heads” scoffed that he would never take this move. Before the Six-Day war, June 5-10, 1967, Israel's official capital was located in Tel Aviv; therefore, it made sense for the American government – under Democrat President Lyndon Johnson – to locate its Embassy in Tel Aviv.

However, Israel shocked the world by winning that war and capturing Jerusalem. Not too long afterward, the Israeli government relocated its capital to its “eternal city”, Jerusalem. However, the Americans from Johnson to Obama – a period of 49 years – consistently refused to move the American Embassy to Jerusalem, afraid of making the impotent Arab world furious.

Evidently, this campaign promise is going to be fulfilled quickly. Now, in year 50 after the Six-Day War, President Trump is going to relocate the American Embassy to Jerusalem!

The Jubilee Year

This time interval lines up with Israel's Jubilee Year. God commanded ancient Israel: "And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years" (Leviticus 25:8).

The time period between the end of the Six-Day War (1967) and today (2016) when Trump made his campaign pledge is 49 years.

God went on adding: "And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family. A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed. For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field. In the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession" (Leviticus 25:9-13).

The nascent Israeli Sanhedrin has already announced that 2017 is a Jubilee Year for Israel, so we should not be too surprised to learn that the numbers of this relocating of the American Embassy to Jerusalem would have Jubilee numbers associated with it. From 1967 to 2017 is precisely FIFTY YEARS – a "Jubilee cycle"!

I do not think that Donald Trump, nor any of his advisers, know any of these facts; therefore, I believe that the Holy Spirit of God has inspired him to take this momentous action!

The City of Jerusalem

There is no controversy like the controversy that surrounds the city of Jerusalem, the most divided city on the earth and the most coveted city on the earth.

The Bible predicted this more than 2,500 years ago, describing the day when Jerusalem would be a "a cup that brings dizziness to all the surrounding nations" (Zech. 12:2, NET), even declaring that one day, the whole would be in uproar over Jerusalem.

Stop and think about it for a moment.

Why does the whole world get so exercised over Jerusalem? Is there any other city on the planet that evokes such intense emotions and polar views?

And why does every nation put its embassies in the city that the host country identifies as its capital, except for the city of Jerusalem, identified as Israel's capital in 1950? Why do virtually all embassies remain in Tel Aviv?

There is something of spiritual significance to this ancient city that simply cannot be denied.

The Jerusalem Embassy Act of 1995, "passed by overwhelming bipartisan majority in both the House and Senate," states that "Jerusalem should be recognized as the capital of the State of Israel and the United States Embassy in Israel should be established in Jerusalem no later than May 31,1999."

Then why didn't presidents Clinton, Bush or Obama move the embassy? As explained by Rabbi Shraga Simmons, "since the congressional act allows the President to implement a waiver at six-month intervals, that's exactly what has happened every six months since 1995."

Now that Donald Trump has insisted that he will, in fact, relocate our embassy – in accordance with the 1995 act -the controversy is hitting the fan. In the words of Sheikh Ekrema Sabri, imam of the al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem, moving the embassy would be as good as a “declaration of war .”

David Friedman

Consider the opposition to Trump's appointee for Ambassador to Israel, David Friedman, a strong supporter of Israel who speaks of our embassy's imminent relocation.

As he said openly and proudly after his nomination, “I intend to work tirelessly to strengthen the unbreakable bond between our two countries and advance the cause of peace within the region, and look forward to doing this from the U.S. Embassy in Israel's eternal capital, Jerusalem.”

According to a December 16 email from Rabbi Shmuley Boteach, known as “America's rabbi,” Friedman is a “brilliant choice for Ambassador to Israel. One of America's most respected and accomplished attorneys, David is regarded in the highest esteem by the New York Jewish community as an exemplar of the American and Jewish virtues of education, erudition, philanthropy, and communal commitment.”

He continued, “David has vast exposure to, and knowledge of, the Jewish State and its history and enjoys the confidence and respect of Israel's leaders. A man of humility and openness, he has a gift for listening, showing respect and deference to all whom he meets. “

In sharp contrast, as noted on the Elder of Ziyon website, last Friday's New York Times "had four articles against Donald Trump's choice to be the U.S. ambassador to Israel. Yes -four articles in one day. Two 'news' articles, one editorial, and one op-ed.”

As Noah Pollack reported in The Washington Free Beacon, “The NYT Is Having a Meltdown Over Trump's Israel Nominee.”

Pollack writes, “David Friedman is a prominent and successful attorney in New York who has spent 20 years representing Donald Trump, among other clients. He is also a proud Jew who holds unapologetic pro-Israel views that are heretical in Times-world, and he has also expressed acid disdain for the kind of Jewish anti-Israel activism regularly glorified in the pages of the Times. So he must be destroyed – and to destroy him he must be lied about. Which is what the Times did.”

Pollack does not specifically mention Friedman's strong support for relocating our embassy, since there are other, controversial pro-Israel positions that Friedman supports, including the building of settlements in territories under Palestinian control and skepticism about a two-state solution.

But you can be assured that a big part of the ruckus over Friedman's appointment is his affirmation that the American embassy will be moved. That's why a headline on the Independent discussing Friedman's nomination ‘declaration of war’”.

And that's why New York Times columnist Thomas Friedman stated to Chris Cuomo on CNN that “moving the American embassy – and this is an evergreen, everyone running for President tosses this out, no one actually does it – moving the embassy to Jerusalem from Tel Aviv, in the absence of an agreed upon solution between Israelis and Palestinians, I would call that the ‘Full Employment for Iran Act.’”

According to Friedman, it would also alienate the Sunni Arab regimes, meaning that this move would provoke the Shiite Muslims in Iran and the Sunni Muslims in countries like Egypt and Saudi Arabia. Jerusalem, the city of controversy indeed!

Thomas Friedman then reiterated to Cuomo and co-host Alisyn Camerota: “This is such madness that it’s – it’s just – I can’t believe we’re talking about it.”

Yet Kellyanne Conway, Trump's senior adviser, has reiterated that the incoming president really does plan to make this move, calling it a “big priority” for him.

How revealing that Thomas Friedman noted that “everyone running for President tosses this out” but “no one actually does it,” whereas Trump is threatening actually to do it.

This is the very reason many people voted for him: They expect him to be a doer, not just a talker.

Joy in Israel

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu could have been excused for dancing a jig in Friday morning's wee hours when U.S. President-elect Donald Trump announced his long-time bankruptcy lawyer David Friedman as nominee for Washington's next ambassador to Israel. Friedman is the anti-Martin Indyk, the anti-Daniel Kurtzer, two former Jewish ambassadors to Israel who often obsessed about the settlements.

Kurtzer and Indyk – when they served as ambassadors and when they left to take other positions – saw construction anywhere beyond the Green Line as the main hurdle to Mideast peace.

Friedman – the president of American Friends of Bet El Institutions – takes a completely opposing view.

Current Ambassador Dan Shapiro has faithfully toed the Obama administration's line opposing the settlements, but never with the same degree of vehemence as Kurtzer, or especially as Indyk. And Indyk was no bit-player in the administration's Mideast policy. He served as John Kerry's special envoy in 2013 and 2014 when the US secretary of state launched his failed attempt to solve the Mideast conflict in nine months.

During that period, and after, Indyk – who was ambassador here twice, once when Netanyahu was prime minister from 1995 to 1997, and again briefly during the reigns of Ehud Barak and Ariel Sharon from 2000 to 2001 – never hid his distaste for Netanyahu and his policies.

Now comes Friedman, a man who questions whether a two-state solution is realistic, who favors construction in the settlements, who wants to move the US embassy to Jerusalem and who detests J Street. Going from Indyk as a central interlocutor to Friedman, Netanyahu must feel as if he has died and gone to heaven.

It is not that Friedman will be setting policy. There is a big difference between the power to set policy – which is Trump's – and influence. But Friedman will definitely have influence.

As Trump's trusted bankruptcy lawyer, Friedman is undeniably close to the president- elect and will be able to whisper into his ear. And what he will whisper is sure to be quite different from what some veteran hands in the State Department will be saying.

The left-wing J Street lobbying organization, predictably, decried the nomination, with its president Jeremy Ben-Ami posting on Twitter that Friedman “is anathema to values that underlie [the] US-Israel relationship,” and that the group will “fight this with all we've got.”

His anger is understandable, since Friedman wrote during the summer that J Street was worse than kapos, the Jews who turned fellow Jews over to the Nazis.

Writing on the Arutz Sheva website, Friedman said: “The kapos faced extraordinary cruelty, and who knows what any of us would have done under those circumstances to save a loved one? But J Street? They are just smug advocates of Israel's destruction delivered from the comfort of their secure American sofas -it's hard to imagine anyone worse.”

J Street's influence and power over the last eight years flowed in large part from its closeness and access to US President Barack Obama and his advisers. That access will now be cut off, and the next president will hear more from people like Friedman than from people like Ben-Ami.

An argument has been made that Friedman's appointment might make political life difficult for Netanyahu because, with a US ambassador to his right -closer to the worldview of Bayit Yehudi head Naftali Bennett than to his own -he will no longer be able to make excuses to the Right as to why he is not building more in the settlements.

But given a choice between an ambassador who takes issue with any home built in any Jewish community beyond the Green Line – be it east Jerusalem, Gush Etzion or Yitzhar – and one who will not send cables to Washington advocating a harsh State Department response for every new home, it is safe to assume that Netanyahu prefers the latter.

It is easier for a prime minister to deal with domestic political problems than with full-blown international condemnation supported by Washington.

What will happen if President Trump succeeds in relocating our embassy to Jerusalem?

With all the pent-up left wing animosity directed at Donald Trump, both during and after his campaign for the presidency, and even assassination threats and attempts, no doubt the Jew hating masses will foam at the mouth. All hell will break loose against Donald Trump. There will be constant, worldwide controversy over the move, with the United Nations raging against him and Israel.

The word of God declares, “Why do the nations rage, and the people plot a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against His Anointed, saying, ‘Let us break their bonds in pieces and cast away their cords from us.’ He who sits in the heavens shall laugh; the LORD shall hold them in derision . . .” (Psalm 2:1-4).

However, on the positive side, no doubt God will bless President Trump for his courage and boldness for showing honor and respect for God’s people and nation of Israel. And God will bless America if we stand by Israel, our foremost ally in the Middle East.

God promised Abraham, the progenitor of Israel, “I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you, I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.” (Gen.12:2-3). May God bless Israel and America, as they stand together in unity and righteousness!

Where Is the United States of America in Bible Prophecy?

Is the United States really mentioned in the Bible? If so, under what name? What is the real evidence of our national heraldic emblems and symbols? Where do we really come from? Could we be totally ignored?

Millions have been mystified, and perplexed about our ancient pedigree. Believe it or not, the ancestors of the English speaking peoples of the world are found throughout the pages of Scripture. But our true IDENTITY has been SEALED – hidden from view for thousands of years!

Who are we – really? How has this knowledge been lost through the centuries? What is the astounding evidence of our true national identity? Where do we fit in the pages of Holy Writ?

The world has been in TOTAL ignorance of the amazing prophecies in the Bible about America! The whole book of Hosea the prophet FOCUSES on this people! America now stands IDENTIFIED in the world today as largely the birthright tribe of ancient Israel known as Ephraim, son of Joseph! Great Britain stands identified as the people of Manasseh, Ephraim's older brother! Here is the astounding Biblical PROOF!

Obama Betrays Israel at The United Nations and Defies God!

The United States radically changed course and supported a United Nations resolution condemning Israel for its settlements in territory possessed by the Palestinians, and for its occupation of eastern Jerusalem and the Temple Mount. The Obama administration, as a final “going away” present, has betrayed Israel, America’s most faithful ally in the Middle East! Where will this lead? What does the future hold?

William F. Dankenbring

United Nations Resolution 181, a resolution passed by the United Nations (UN) General Assembly in 1947, called for the partition of Palestine into Arab and Jewish states, with the city of Jerusalem as a corpus separatum (Latin: “separate entity”) to be governed by a special international regime.

The resolution – which was considered by the Jewish community in Palestine to be a legal basis for the establishment of Israel, and which was rejected by the Arab community – was succeeded almost immediately by violence. Israel fought for and gained her independence.

This division lasted just 20 years until the Six Day War when Israel was threatened on all sides by militant Arab nations led by Egypt and Syria.

At that time Israel fought for its survival, and in the process miraculously emerged victorious and conquered the territories of the West Bank of the Jordan, the Golan Heights, and the eastern part of Jerusalem and the Temple Mount, as well as the Sinai peninsula.

An Act of Supreme Treachery

Fast forward to Dec. 24, 2016 . . .

For the first time in recent memory the United States suddenly and without warning abstained from a United Nations vote regarding the state of Israel. And this failure to issue a veto has now culminated in the UN officially condemning the Jewish settlements long built in the territories originally designated to the Arab's (Palestinians), and opens the door for further sanctions unless they either cease and desist building, or remove their occupation altogether.

The United States with a lame duck president, on Friday, Dec.23, allowed a UN Security Council resolution condemning Israeli settlement construction to be adopted, defying extraordinary pressure from Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's government in alliance with President-elect Donald Trump.

The Security Council approved the resolution with 14 votes, with the US abstaining. There was applause in the chamber following the vote, which represented perhaps the final bitter chapter in the years of antagonism between President Barack Obama's administration and Netanyahu's government.

The Palestinians were delighted by their rare diplomatic coup. “This is a victory for the people and for the cause, and it opens doors wide for the demand of sanctions on settlements,” said Mustafa Barghouti, a Palestinian leader.

Now, as America enters into a new year and a new President at the helm, the question regarding her long-standing alliance with Israel is very much up in the air. Now, even with Donald Trump's adamant support of Israel, which he has expressed several times on Twitter in recent days, the rest of the world appears solidly against the policies of the Jewish state.

Michael Snyder of EconomicCollapseBlog writes about the horrendous decision Barack Obama made to undercut and betray the state of Israel in the United Nations by refusing to veto the UN resolution condemning Israeli settlements in the Holy Land. Here is more evidence that we are drawing closer to the END of this age and the final act of World War III and Armageddon. He writes the following:

Obama Betrays Israel At The United Nations – Is America's Reprieve Now Over?

Barack Obama actually did it. Despite enormous pressure from the government of Israel, President-elect Donald Trump and members of his own party in Congress, Barack Obama decided to stick a knife in Israel's back at the United Nations.

On Friday, the UN Security Council adopted a resolution that calls for a “two-State solution based on the 1967 lines” and that shockingly states that “the establishment by Israel of settlements in the Palestinian territory occupied since 1967, including East Jerusalem, has no legal validity”.

This resolution was approved by a vote of 14 to 0, and the U.S. abstained from voting. But essentially the outcome of the vote was going to be determined by Barack Obama.

For decades, the U.S. veto power on the UN Security Council has shielded Israel from these types of resolutions, but this time around Obama decided to betray Israel by allowing this vote to pass. Needless to say, this vote is going to have enormous implications for Israel, for the United States, and for the entire globe.

Just five days ago, I published one of the most important articles that I have ever written. It was entitled "The Real Reason Why America Has Been Given A Reprieve", and in that article I explained why the U.S. has experienced a season of blessing since blocking a potential UN Security Council resolution that France wanted to introduce that would have formally divided the land of Israel in September 2015.

As I stated in that previous article, it is my contention that the reason why things have gone so well for the United States over the past 16 months is because Barack Obama made the right decision in September 2015 and chose to protect the land of Israel from being divided.

But now that Barack Obama has reversed course and has greatly betrayed Israel, is America's reprieve now over?

For months, Michael Snyder has been warning that Barack Obama may do something like this at the UN during the waning days of his presidency. And he has also been warning about the severe consequences that the United States would face if our government did ultimately decide to betray Israel.

This UN Security Council resolution that was passed on Friday, Dec.23, was originally going to be put up for a vote on Thursday. But after enormous pressure from the government of Israel and from President-elect Donald Trump, Egypt decided to withdraw the resolution that they had proposed at the last moment.

When that happened, it looked like everything was going to be okay.

However, temporary members of the UN Security Council New Zealand, Malaysia, Venezuela and Senegal immediately objected to Egypt's move, and they indicated that they would submit the resolution for a vote if Egypt would not.

So on Friday a vote took place, and Obama did what many had been fearing. The following comes from the New York Times...

Defying extraordinary pressure from President-elect Donald J. Trump and furious lobbying by Israel, the Obama administration on Friday allowed the United Nations Security Council to adopt a contentious resolution that condemned Israeli settlement construction.

The administration's decision not to veto the measure broke a longstanding American tradition of serving as Israel's sturdiest diplomatic shield.

President-elect Trump publicly said that he would have vetoed this resolution, but now it will be virtually impossible for him to reverse it.

Another vote of the UN Security Council would be necessary to reverse it, and the votes simply would not be there. And even if they were, either Russia or China could use the veto power that they possess to block it.

So this resolution is going to be permanent, and it is considered to be legally binding on both Israel and the Palestinians.

It seems fitting that Barack Obama is vacationing in Hawaii while all of this drama is playing out. Perhaps while he is on the golf course he is enjoying a good laugh about how he really stuck it to his long-time nemesis Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

Needless to say, the Israeli government is absolutely furious that Obama has betrayed them. The following comes from U.S. News & World Report...

An Israeli official on Friday accused President Barack Obama of colluding with the Palestinians in a "shameful move against Israel at the U.N." after learning the White House did not intend to veto a Security Council resolution condemning settlement construction in the West Bank and east Jerusalem the day before.

"President Obama and Secretary Kerry are behind this shameful move against Israel at the U.N.," the official said. "The U.S administration secretly cooked up with the Palestinians an extreme anti-Israeli resolution behind Israel's back which would be a tail wind for terror and boycotts and effectively make the Western Wall occupied Palestinian territory," he said calling it "an abandonment of Israel which breaks decades of US policy of protecting Israel at the UN."

You can read the full text of the UN Security Council resolution. These are some of the highlights that I pulled out of the document...

- It refers to Israel as "the occupying Power"
- It calls for a "two-State solution based on the 1967 lines"
- It speaks of a Middle East "where two democratic States, Israel and Palestine, live side by side in peace within secure and recognized borders"
- It demands "the dismantlement of all settlement outposts erected since March 20013"

-- To me, the following is the key paragraph in the entire resolution...

“Reaffirms that the establishment by Israel of settlements in the Palestinian territory occupied since 1967, including East Jerusalem, has no legal validity and constitutes a flagrant violation under international law and a major obstacle to the achievement of the two-State solution and a just, lasting and comprehensive peace”

-- It stipulates “that Israel immediately and completely cease all settlement activities in the occupied Palestinian territory, including East Jerusalem”

-- It states that the UN Security Council “will not recognize any changes to the 4 June 1967 lines, including with regard to Jerusalem, other than those agreed by the parties through negotiations”

-- It expresses a belief that “the cessation of all Israeli settlement activities is essential for salvaging the two-State solution, and calls for affirmative steps to be taken immediately to reverse the negative trends on the ground that are imperiling the two-State solution”

-- It calls on all UN member states “to distinguish, in their relevant dealings, between the territory of the State of Israel and the territories occupied since 1967”

This is the most anti-Israel resolution that the UN Security Council has ever passed, and it never would have happened without Barack Obama's approval.

The Israeli government and the Obama administration have had a very strained relationship for years, and this moment represents the culmination of tensions that have been building for a very long time.

But does this resolution actually represent the “division of the land of Israel” at the United Nations that so many have been waiting for?

I don't know if I have a definitive answer to that question for you today. The language of this resolution does not directly give formal recognition to a Palestinian state, but it does speak of a “democratic state” of “Palestine”, and it does speak of “Palestinian territory”.

It calls Israel “the occupying Power”, and it does say that all Israeli settlements in the West Bank and in East Jerusalem are illegal. And on top of everything else, the UN Security Council clearly stated that it “will not recognize any changes to the 4 June 1967 lines, including with regard to Jerusalem, other than those agreed by the parties through negotiations”.

So it seems clear that the UN Security Council has affirmed three major points that we have been watching for...

#1 A Palestinian state exists.

#2 The 1967 ceasefire lines represent the borders between the state of Israel and Palestine, but future negotiations between Israel and the Palestinians could alter these borders.

#3 East Jerusalem belongs to the Palestinians. This resolution does not refer to East Jerusalem as the future capital of Palestine, but that is obviously what is intended.

But perhaps another resolution will come later which will give official UN Security Council recognition to a Palestinian state.

At this point, we just don't know.

However, what we do know is that for decades whenever the U.S. has taken steps toward dividing the land of Israel it has resulted in dramatic consequences for our nation.

It is my contention that this betrayal of Israel at the United Nations by Barack Obama represents a major turning point.

I believe that America's reprieve is now over, and that many of the things that people have been anticipating since September 2015 will start happening.

Barack Obama just made the worst decision of his entire presidency, and from this point forward nothing is ever going to be the same again. (Michael Snyder, EconomicCollapseBlog, Dec.26, 2016).

The Land of Israel

Compelling Israel to give up the land God gave to them, the land God promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and their descendants, is tantamount to insanity and utter folly and rebellion against the Most High God and His decrees. God said to Abraham, "I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great. I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you; and in you shall all the families of the earth be blessed" (Gen.12:2-3). God promised all the land of Israel, where Abraham trod, to him and his descendants (Gen.13:14-16). Giving up God's inheritance to the Gentiles, the Palestinians, who are trespassers, is odious in the sight of God – a faithless act of disloyalty and disobedience.

The prophet Hosea warns: "Blow ye the trumpet on the hills, sound aloud on the heights: proclaim in the house of On, Benjamin is amazed. Ephraim [the United States] has come to nought in the days of reproof: in the tribes of Israel I have shown faithful dealings. The princes of Judah became as they that remove the BOUNDS [boundaries or borders!]: I will pour out upon them my fury as water" (Hos.5:8-10).

This describes the punishment from God that will result because of Israel giving up their land due to the pressure of the world's nations. The Palestinians are the true "usurpers." They do not belong on the land which God gave in an everlasting covenant to ABRAHAM and his descendants, the children of Israel!

God foretold that His people would "remove the borders" – tamper with the borders of Israel – and because of this flagrant violation of His divine Law, He will pour out His fury upon them!

Hosea continues the prophecy. God says: "I will go and return to my place, until they are brought to nought, and then shall they seek my face. In their affliction, they will seek me early, saying, Let us go, and return to the Lord our God; for he has torn, and will heal us; he will smite, and bind us up. After two days [years, being fulfilled, a "day for a year" – see Num.14:34] he will heal us: in the third day [third year] we shall arise, and live before him, and shall KNOW him; let us follow on to know the Lord: we shall find him ready as the morning, and he will come to us [the second coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ!] as the early and latter rain to this earth" (Hos.5:15; 6:1-4, LXX).

Dividing the Land

The recent resolution of the United Nations, with the United States government abstaining, and failing to support Israel, places the United States and the world increasingly opposed to the will of God. If the United States does not repent and support Israel, our faithless actions will put us under the wrath and judgment of a righteous God who will not trifle with those who flagrantly disobey Him and trample on His laws.

This dastardly act of cowardice and betrayal by Barack Obama will set the stage for the Great Tribulation and a time of horror and treachery such as the world has never known or experienced in all its history. The nations of the world have sown the wind, and will soon reap the whirlwind, if they continue down this course and follow this trajectory to its ultimate conclusion.

God tells the prophet Joel, "I will also gather all nations, and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will enter into judgment with them there on account of My people, My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; they have also divided up My land" (Joel 3:2-3).

The UN resolution could be the action which will lead to World War III. A new treaty would take the place of the Oslo I and II treaties and Hebron peace accords, signed off in 1993, 1995, and January 16, 1997. It could include a secret defense pact, guaranteeing Israel's security, by the power of the United States, Russia and Europe. Also involved, as an item of understanding, could be special "foreign aid" provisos, as well as special trade rights, negotiated between the United States, Europe, and the state of Israel. The whole package would be made so attractive and enticing that most of the leaders of Israel would fall for it in a heart-beat, and would foolishly sign on to the agreement!

But the Palestinians, historically, have only one true objective – to seize the Holy Land and to drive Israel into the sea!

The prophet Isaiah calls it the “covenant of death”!

“Therefore hear ye the word of the Lord, ye afflicted men, and ye princes of this people that is in Jerusalem. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with Hades [the grave, death], and agreements with death; if the rushing storm [war] should pass, it will not come upon us; we have made falsehood our hope, and falsehood shall we be protected: therefore thus saith the Lord, even the Lord, Behold, I lay for the foundations of Sion a costly stone, a choice, a corner stone, a precious stone, for its foundations: and he that believes on him shall by no means be ashamed . . . ye that trust vainly in falsehood shall fall: for the storm shall by no means pass by you, except it also take away your covenant of death, and your trust in Hades shall by no means stand” (Isaiah 28:14-18, LXX).

Obama’s treacherous and insidious act of black betrayal of Israel, as one of his final remaining acts while still in office, amounts to the worst decision of his entire error-prone, wicked presidency. He is showing his hatred for Israel. Although professing love for Israel, like the coming ruler of the New World Order, Obama really hates God’s people Israel and sides with the Muslim world and Israel’s enemies.

He has “indignation [anger] against the holy covenant” (Dan.11:30). He has “intelligence [secret dealings] with them that forsake the holy covenant” (same verse). His “heart [is] against the holy covenant” (Dan. 11:28).

The Hebrew word for “intelligence” in Daniel 11:30 is bene and means “to come to an understanding, be cunning, perceive, look well to, mark, teach, instruct, deal wisely, to understand.” This refers amazingly well to the land-for-peace agreement the world is trying to force upon the Jews!

President Donald J. Trump has promised to change the course of America, and get us on the right track again – to make America great again – and to make America safe again – and to renew America’s alliance with her friends and allies, especially Israel. He is determined to move the U.S. embassy to Jerusalem, the capital of Israel, and already has men scouting the city searching for the appropriate location.

May God bless his presidency and term in office and help him renew America and turn us back to the Word and Promises and Laws of God!

Prophecy Briefs

Trump Wants to Move US Embassy to Jerusalem

Donald Trump plans to move the U.S. Embassy in Israel from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem — an official recognition by America of the Jewish state's capital, Morton Klein, president of the Zionist Organization of America, tells Newsmax TV.

"His advisers who are friends of mine tell me that he would really move the embassy to Jerusalem," Klein, who served as an economist in the Nixon, Ford, and Carter Administrations, said Thursday to Steve Malzberg on "America Talks Live."

Trump and Israel – Now What?

The unexpected, improbable, against-the-odds victory Tuesday of Trump over Hillary Clinton undoubtedly shocked Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Jerusalem as much as it shocked the world.

SAN FRANCISCO - "I love Israel and honor and respect the Jewish tradition and it's important we have a president who feels the same way," US President-elect Donald Trump said in a pre-recorded video message to a rally held two weeks ago in a restaurant overseeing the Old City.

"My administration will stand side-by-side with the Jewish people and Israel's leaders to continue strengthening the bridges that connect, not only Jewish Americans and Israelis, but also all Americans and Israelis," he said. "Together we will stand up to enemies, like Iran, bent on destroying Israel and her people, together we will make America and Israel safe again."

Now we will see.

The unexpected, improbable, against-the-odds victory Tuesday of Trump over Hillary Clinton undoubtedly shocked Prime Minister Benjamin

Netanyahu and Jerusalem as much as it shocked leaders in capitals throughout the world. Now Netanyahu and his aides will have to begin figuring out what exactly it means for Israel.

And that will not be an easy chore, considering that Trump does not have any real practical record on Israel.

While Netanyahu obviously had policy differences with Clinton, at least he knew where she stood and what to expect. Israeli policy-makers, in general, like the predictable; they like to know what they are getting, even if it is not everything they want, because at least in this regard they know how to prepare. Clinton was a known-commodity because she has been involved for so long at a policy level on Israel-related issues. There was a degree of predictability regarding how she would act, and who she could be expected to bring on board her national security team.

No such predictability exists with regard to Trump. He is a blank slate; a wild card.

While during the campaign Trump hit the right rhetorical buttons when it comes to Israel --, though he also raised some eyebrows by talking at one stage about US "neutrality" in the conflict with the Palestinians and at another about the need for US allies to pay more of their share of US military assistance – he has no track record. Being the grand marshal of the Israel Day Parade in Manhattan is commendable, but it is not the same as having dealt over the years with the nitty-gritty of Mideast issues.

That being the case there are certain elements of a Trump presidency that had to have Netanyahu smiling on Wednesday morning.

The first is Trump's running mate, Mike Pence. The former Indiana governor and congressman is an Evangelical Christian and strong supporter of Israel. He stated at that rally in Jerusalem two weeks ago – shortly after UNESCO voted to expunge any Jewish connection to the Temple Mount – that Jerusalem is the "eternal undivided capital of the Jewish people and the Jewish state.” He called Israel America’s “most cherished ally,” and said that he and Trump stand with Israel because “Israel’s fight is our fight, because Israel’s cause is our cause.” And, unlike Trump, he has a long record of political support for Israel.

Finally, the election of Trump is likely to lead to a continuation and even increased cooperation between Israel and some of its Sunni neighbors, such as Egypt, Jordan, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates.

What Trump will do in the Mideast is an unknown not only for Israel, but for those countries as well. They, too, do not know the degree to which they can depend on Washington. One of the reasons for the enhanced cooperation between these disparate countries over the last few years has been uncertainty of the degree to which Washington could be relied upon, and fear of a US withdrawal from the region. That insecurity will remain for the time being, at least until Trump’s direction in the region becomes clear. (Jerusalem Post, Nov.9, 2016).

Sanhedrin Asks Putin and Trump to Build Third Temple in Jerusalem

“Thus saith Hashem to His anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him, and to loose the loins of kings; to open the doors before him, and that the gates may not be shut.” Isaiah 45:1 (The Israel Bible).

The Nascent Sanhedrin is calling on Russian President Vladimir Putin and US president-elect Donald Trump to join forces and fulfill their Biblically-mandated roles by rebuilding the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem.

Rabbi Hillel Weiss, spokesman for the Sanhedrin, contacted Breaking Israel News to announce that the election of Trump, who has promised to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, coupled with Putin’s expressed desire for the Temple to be rebuilt, prompted the Jewish court to send a letter offering the two the opportunity to act as modern-day Cyrus figures: non-Jewish kings who recognize the importance of Israel and the Temple.

Cyrus the Great, King of Persia in the sixth century BCE, announced in the first year of his reign that he was prompted by God to make a decree that the Temple in Jerusalem should be rebuilt.

Thus saith Koresh king of Paras: All the kingdoms of the earth hath Hashem, the God of heaven, given me; and He hath charged me to build Him a house in Yerushalayim, which is in Yehuda. Ezra 1:2

Cyrus sent the Jews under his rule back to Israel with a considerable sum of money with which to rebuild the Temple. The Sanhedrin plans to call on the two world leaders to take up this ancient Biblical decree and support the Jewish people in their holy mission.

Rabbi Weiss explained that the US elections have made the eternal Jewish dream a very real possibility.

“We are poised to rebuild the Temple. The political conditions today, in which the two most important national leaders in the world support the Jewish right to Jerusalem as their spiritual inheritance, is historically unprecedented,” Rabbi Weiss told Breaking Israel News. (Breaking Israel News, Nov.10, 2016).

Sanhedrin to Trump-Putin: Fulfill Cyrus-like role

With the two top world leaders supporting Jewish right to Jerusalem, Sanhedrin asks that they build Third Temple.

Eyeing what appears to be a twice-in-history opportunity, the organization called the Sanhedrin has called on U.S. president-elect Donald Trump and Russian President Vladimir Putin to join forces and back the rebuilding of the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem.

The Sanhedrin is an attempt to renew the glorious Great Court of the same name from the last Jewish kingdom, some 2,000 years ago.

Prof. Rabbi Hillel Weiss, spokesman for the Sanhedrin, said, "The political conditions today, in which the two most important national leaders in the world support the Jewish right to Jerusalem as their spiritual inheritance, is historically unprecedented.”

He said that the election of Donald Trump, who has promised to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, coupled with Putin’s expressed desire for the Temple’s rebuilding, prompted the Sanhedrin to send a letter to both leaders. The letter proposes that they act jointly as did King Cyrus of Persia 2,500 years ago and show most practically that they recognize the importance of Israel and the Holy Temple.

“We are poised to rebuild the Temple,” Weiss said.

Trump’s support for Israel, and for the relocation of the U.S. Embassy to Jerusalem, is well-known, and many of his close aides are similarly strong supporters of Israel.

Less well-known is Putin’s support for the Holy Temple. As the Sanhedrin writes in its letter, Putin paid a late-night visit to the Kotel (Western Wall) in 2012, during his third official trip to Jerusalem. Upon his arrival, the former KGB agent who became the leader of Russia stood in silent prayer for several minutes, after which he read Psalms from a Russian-Hebrew prayer book. At one point, an Israeli bystander called out in Russian, “Welcome, President Putin.” Putin then approached the man, who explained the importance of the Temple Mount and the Jewish Temple. Putin reportedly responded, “That’s exactly the reason I came here – to pray for the Temple to be built again.”

The Sanhedrin sent a letter at the time to Putin, calling on him to act to fulfill his prayer. President Putin did not respond, but the Sanhedrin hopes he will respond to the current letter, now that he has a potential ally for the project in the United States leadership.

Basing himself on Biblical passages and Rabbinic tradition, Rabbi Weiss explained that “the leaders of Russia and America can lead the nations of the world to global peace through building the Temple, the source of peace.” Supporting the Jewish claim to Jerusalem would bring benefit Russia and America, as well as the entire world, he said. (Arutz Sheva, Nov.21, 2016).

Clinton Had a Violent Meltdown on Election Night

Seems Hillary Clinton and the rest of her staff were in need of a safe space on Election Night. Or maybe, her aides were the ones who needed a safe space from her.

According to various reports, Clinton was at some points inconsolably emotional, possibly drunk, and physically threatening towards her top aides, as the reality that Donald Trump had defeated her slowly sank in.

According to author Ed Klein, Clinton “couldn’t stop crying” once she realized she had lost the election.

“She was crying, inconsolably,” he said. “Her friend said — her female friend from way, way, back — said that it was even hard to understand what she was saying, she was crying so hard.”

That’s when, according to a radio host who spoke with a CNN reporter, things got ugly.

CNN reporter tells me Hillary became physically violent towards Robby Mook and John Podesta around midnight; had to be briefly restrained. (The Kincannon Show (@kincannon_show, November 14, 2016).

He added that Clinton may have been in a drunken rage ...

She was. I posted about that too. She was in a “psychotic drunken rage” according to my reporter friend. Doctor added sedatives to the mix.

Multiple reports have surfaced that the Clinton team was so confident in their victory last week, that they started popping champagne corks before the votes had been counted.

Perhaps the candidate herself also took part.

A combination of a few drinks and an angry candidate may have led to Clinton’s disappearance that night. Rather than make a concession speech, she refused to address her election night party and instead sent Podesta out to clean up the mess.

Is it any wonder that so many of her followers are emulating Clinton's behavior, going on full-fledged temper tantrums and riots, shedding massive amounts of tears because the election didn't go the way they wanted it to?

They're simply following their leader. Thank goodness for the rest of us, she isn't going to be the actual leader of our nation. This kind of behavior shows that Trump was most definitely the correct choice for President. (The Political Insider, Nov.15, 2016).

Hillary Clinton Attacked John Podesta On Election Night After Losing

Hillary Clinton has a serious anger problem. For years, documented sources have confirmed that she often becomes violent and physically attacks people when they disagree with her or fail to do something she asks.

"Hillary's been having screaming, child-like tantrums that have left staff members in tears and unable to work," says a campaign aide. "She thought the presidency was hers for the asking, but her mounting problems have been getting to her and she's become shrill and, at times, even very violent."

In one incident, Hillary berated one of her own campaign workers for making a scheduling mistake. When the girl turned her back on Hillary and walk away, Hillary grabbed her arm and jerked her backwards.

While that is completely unacceptable, it is now being reported that Hillary Clinton became "physically violent" towards members of her own campaign staff when she saw the final results of the presidential election, according to radio host Todd Kincannon.

"CNN reporter tells me Hillary became physically violent towards Robby Mook and John Podesta around midnight; had to be briefly restrained," tweeted Kincannon.

CNN reporter tells me Hillary became physically violent towards Robby Mook and John Podesta around midnight; had to be briefly restrained.

(The Kincannon Show, November 14, 2016).

We all remember that Hillary Clinton refused to come out and speak to her supporters the night of the election. It was John Podesta, her campaign chairman, that was forced to come out and speak on her behalf to her large group of crying supporters. The Clintons were also unseen the following day, as well, except when she gave a five minute concession speech.

Several reports have swarmed to this story and have been speaking with former Clinton top aides that were present in the campaign that night. When asked about rumors that Hillary was drunk on election night, Kincannon responded:

She was. I posted about that too. She was in a "psychotic drunken rage" according to my reporter friend. Doctor added sedatives to the mix.

Kincannon then went on to argue that CNN blocked the reporter from publishing what would have been a gigantic story. The reporter indicated that CNN refused to cover a story that painted Hillary Clinton in a negative light.

"The CNN reporter didn't fail to report it. His editors will not let him. CNN has banned all "Hillary in the bunker" stories," he tweeted.

The CNN reporter didn't fail to report it. His editors will not let him. CNN has banned all (Hillary in the bunker stories. (The Kincannon Show, November 15, 2016).

Hillary Clinton basking herself in alcohol and having drunken outbursts in nothing new. Several Secret Service agents have gone on record and indicated that Hillary has a serious problem with angry tantrums and getting drunk.

It was also reported in 2015 that Clinton's own campaign staffers feared she would have a "serious meltdown" if she lost the election. It appears that is exactly what happened the night she found out Donald Trump beat her in a landslide.

On top of this groundbreaking revelation, the former Editor in Chief for New York Magazine, Ed Klein, indicated in an interview that a close

Hillary Clinton-ally told him that he witnessed Hillary crying inconsolably to a friend after the results came in that night.

The source argues that she blamed FBI director Comey for sabotaging her campaign and President Barack Obama for not stopping him from conducting the investigations. What a joke.

Ed Klein: Hillary cried inconsolably, blamed Comey & Obama for not doing enough to stop FBI investigation (Paul Joseph Watson, Prison Planet, November 9, 2016).

America dodged a serious bullet with loonie-liberal Hillary Clinton. Imagine her erratic fingers on the nuclear codes. Or, imagine if other Nations “offended her” and she irately initiated war because it was beyond her nap time?

The country dodged the bullet last Tuesday in a way that most Americans do not realize. By keeping the Clintons out of the White House and, in a sense, retiring Hillary from politics — that’s a huge accomplishment for the American people and this great Nation. (Conservative Daily Post, Nov.15, 2016).

Clinton Camp Linked to Satanism!

It’s the most disturbing email released yet from anti-secrecy organization WikiLeaks — and it directly links Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton’s campaign manager, John Podesta, and a Satanic “Spirit Cooking” ritual.

This isn’t the stuff of fringe conspiracy theory lunatics. This bombshell connection between top Clinton aides and the occult is very real — and it’s taking the internet by storm. The hashtag #SpiritCooking became the top trending topic on the social media giant Twitter early Friday.

The email reveals that Podesta, a close aide of the Clinton family, appears to have attended a “Spirit Cooking” dinner with his brother and their wives, hosted by an extreme occult performance artist named Marina Abramovic.

But a “Spirit Cooking” dinner doesn’t include a sit-down dinner with turkey and red wine. It reportedly involves pigs blood, pentagrams, and self-mutilation. No, really.

The shocking email link to the Satanic practices couldn’t have come at a worse time for the Clinton campaign. Liberals were quick to dismiss the bloody practice as “performance art,” but religious leaders had already been speaking out, according to reports.

The Huffington Post reported on Oct 16th that the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in San Diego had warned, “The devil does this through tactics outlined by Saul Alinsky with the outcome as Hillary Clinton stated ‘And deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases have to be changed,’ to draw us away from God’s teachings regarding the sanctity of life to those of the world and its prince.”

Chilling? You’re not alone. The accusations are flying on social media as well. (The Horn News, Nov.4, 2016).

Hillary Visited Orgy Island!

Citing a “well-placed source” in the New York Police Department, Blackwater USA founder and retired Navy SEAL Erik Prince claims that among the 650,000 Huma Abedin emails on her estranged husband’s laptop is evidence Hillary Clinton, as well as former President Bill Clinton, was a visitor to convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein’s Caribbean hideaway, known as “Orgy Island.”

Prince told the Breitbart News Daily radio show that Abedin and her estranged husband, former Democratic Rep. Anthony Weiner, are now cooperating with authorities in multiple investigations of Bill and Hillary Clinton.

“They found State Department emails,” he said of FBI investigators. “They found a lot of other really damning criminal information, including money laundering, including the fact that Hillary went to this sex island with convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein. Bill Clinton went there more than 20 times. Hillary Clinton went there at least six times.”

In May, FoxNews.com reported Bill Clinton was a much more frequent flyer on Epstein’s infamous Boeing 727 “Lolita Express” jet than previously reported.

Flight logs show he took at least 26 trips and apparently even ditched his Secret Service detail for at least five of the flights. The manifests for the trips, between 2001 and 2003, identified fellow passengers by their initials or first names, including “Tatiana.” The jet was reportedly outfitted with a bed where passengers had group sex with young girls.

FoxNews.com reported in July that attorneys for Epstein touted his close friendship with Bill Clinton and even claimed the billionaire helped start the Clinton Global Initiative.

Emails that surfaced in August showed famed defense attorney Roy Black was deemed too controversial to host an event for President Obama because he represented Epstein against charges of trafficking nearly three-dozen underage girls for sex for himself and his powerful friends. Black and co-counsel Alan Dershowitz were able to secure a deal in 2008 in which Epstein pleaded guilty to only one count related to prostitution with a minor. Epstein registered as a sex offender and served, partly in home detention, just 13 months of a 19-month sentence.

Meanwhile, in a bizarre twist, Wikileaks published Friday an email inviting Hillary Clinton’s campaign chairman, John Podesta, to a “spirit cooking dinner” hosted by performance artist Marina Abramovic, which features an occult ritual created by Satanist Aleister Crowley.

A tweet from WikiLeaks’ Twitter account hinted there is far more to the story: “The Podestas’ ‘Spirit Cooking’ dinner? It’s not what you think. It’s blood, sperm and breastmilk. But mostly blood. http://wearechange.org/spirit-cooking-disturbing-podesta-email-yet-warning-graphic-content/ ...”

John Podesta’s brother, Tony Podesta, forwarded the June 28, 2015, email in which Abramovic wrote: “I am so looking forward to the Spirit Cooking dinner at my place. Do you think you will be able to let me know if your brother is joining? All my love, Marina.”

Tony Podesta wrote to his brother, above the forwarded email: “Are you in NYC Thursday July 9 Marina wants you to come to dinner.”

In another tweet regarding the exchange, WikiLeaks commented: “Tony Podesta. By Day, mild mannered Foreign Agent for Saudi Arabia. By night, Spirit Cooker.”

Abramovic was touted in New York Magazine as “the world’s most famous performance artist.” She has published a new memoir, “Walk Through Walls,” and appeared in a video with rapper Jay Z, who is campaigning for Hillary Clinton tonight in Ohio.

‘So disgusting’

Prince said the NYPD wanted to do a press conference announcing the warrants and the additional arrests they were making in the Weiner investigation but received “huge pushback” from the Justice Department.

“The amount of garbage that they found in these emails, of criminal activity by Hillary, by her immediate circle, and even by other Democratic members of Congress was so disgusting they gave it to the FBI, and they said, ‘We’re going to go public with this if you don’t reopen the investigation and you don’t do the right thing with timely indictments,’” Prince told Breitbart News Daily.

Abedin, who has been at Hillary Clinton’s side throughout the 2016 campaign, was immediately removed from the campaign trail after FBI Director James Comey informed Congress last Friday of the discovery of the 650,000 emails and the decision to reopen the investigation into Hillary Clinton’s handling of classified information. (WND, Nov.4, 2016).

Hillary Supporters Have Temper Tantrum Meltdown

Former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton is furious over her loss to President-elect Donald Trump.

Numerous reports say the Clinton family is taking Trump’s victory as bad as you could imagine. Insiders say Hillary has been reduced to a near depressive state, while Bill’s temper rages out of control.

It’s easy to imagine why

Critics say they've uncovered evidence of massive voter fraud during the election recounts. And to help pad their phony numbers even more, the Clinton campaign had the mainstream media completely in their pocket for months.

And if there are still people who doubt that the Clinton campaign all but controlled mainstream media during the election cycle, they need to watch this.

According to "Morning Joe" co-host Mika Brzeninski, after she questioned if the election were close Hillary called MSNBC — and demanded she be removed from the air!

Thursday, it became clear that Hillary may even have grown delusional. Rather than look inward and ask why the American people so flatly rejected her, the former secretary of state publicly blamed so-called "fake news" for the loss — despite the serious evidence that revealed her OWN campaign was feeding "fake news" to the American people during the election.

"The epidemic of malicious fake news and false propaganda that flooded social media over the past year — it's now clear the so-called fake news can have real-world consequences," Clinton said during an appearance at Capitol Hill.

Meanwhile, the "fake news" story from The Washington Post was revealed this week to be almost entirely a fabrication.

Does Hillary still think the American people are so easily fooled?

Or is she drinking from her own Kool-Aide?

Either way, Hillary's campaign staffers and supporters are taking it poorly, openly weeping and yelling "Oh God! Oh my God!" at her very presence. (The Horn News, Dec.11, 2016).

STEALTH INVASION!

'Secret' refugee resettlement transforming America'

If they're not assimilating, then we're creating a huge Trojan horse'

Like seeds in a garden, refugees are being planted in cities and towns all across America. But the fact that it's being done in secret should set off alarm bells, according to veteran WND reporter Leo Hohmann.

"No good thing usually happens in secret," Hohmann said in a recent appearance on "The Conservative Conscience podcast with Daniel Horowitz." "Secrecy is the enemy of truth, and this is what we've seen in one community after another. People just feel like their community is being changed without them having any say-so in the matter."

Hohmann attempts to cut through the secrecy of the federal refugee resettlement program in his forthcoming book "Stealth Invasion: Muslim Conquest Through Immigration and Resettlement Jihad." He told Horowitz refugees are being placed in small cities all over the country — places such as Stone Mountain, Georgia; Twin Falls, Idaho; and Rutland, Vermont — with no input from the local communities.

Once residents find out about the plan, it is almost always too late to stop it or even to ask any questions. And those who do ask questions are often castigated as bigots or xenophobes who hate refugees.

So native residents are left with a town they no longer recognize.

"Before long you end up with cities like Dearborn, Michigan, Hamtramck, Michigan, where your vote is going to be watered down and eliminated by a foreign culture," said Hohmann, referring to two cities with large Muslim populations.

Resentment among the native population grows whenever a refugee commits a crime and gets off with little or no punishment. Hohmann said that does happen in America as in Europe. He pointed to Twin Falls, Idaho, where three refugee boys raped a 5-year-old special-needs girl in an apartment complex. An elderly resident witnessed it when she walked in on it in the laundry room. Moreover, the oldest boy filmed the assault, so there was no lack of evidence.

But when some bloggers initially reported on the incident, they said the refugee boys were Syrians when they were actually from Iraq and Sudan. The establishment local media seized on that mistake to try and discredit the whole incident, according to Hohmann.

Horowitz, who also discussed refugee policy in his book “Stolen Sovereignty: How to Stop Unelected Judges From Transforming America,” said people tend to worry most about Syrian refugees today, but the Syrian resettlement program is relatively new. The U.S. admits more than 100,000 Muslim immigrants each year, and they come from a wide variety of countries. In fact, the U.S. continues to take in Somali refugees 23 years after their country collapsed into civil war.

It demonstrates that once a refugee admissions program starts, it doesn’t stop, noted Hohmann.

“We’ve been getting 5,000 to 10,000 [Somali refugees] per year since the ’90s,” he said. “It’s just unbelievable.”

People can talk all they want about stricter vetting of incoming refugees, Horowitz opined, but that misses the point: The problem is the U.S. is importing people with a mentality that’s antithetical to American values and cultivates a climate where people may become radicalized. He said it’s not that the U.S. is letting in known terrorists; it’s that it’s letting in people whose attitudes may lead them to terrorism someday.

“You listen to President Obama, and he’ll say 99 percent of the world’s Muslims are peaceful, and every time there’s a terrorist attack that’s just the 1 percent I guess,” Hohmann said. “Well, you know, that’s not what you find when you go out and talk to people.”

He noted media personality Ami Horowitz once filmed a documentary in Minneapolis, a city with many Somali Muslims. Almost every Muslim the filmmaker spoke to said Shariah law should be supreme over the U.S. Constitution.

“Just because they’re not all out committing terrorist attacks doesn’t mean they’re going to buy into our system and assimilate into American culture,” Hohmann said. “And what does that tell you? Over time, the more we bring in, if they’re not assimilating, then we’re creating a huge Trojan horse here in America down the road.”

Daniel Horowitz’s solution for avoiding that Trojan horse is to be more selective about what types of immigrants allowed in. Again, he emphasized the answer is not to screen out known security threats but those who have the wrong mindset.

“Immigration’s an elective policy, and there’s a lot of supply,” he pointed out. “A lot of people want to come here; everyone wants to come here. We should only bring in people who will affirmatively love America, cherish our values.

“Our Founders always referred to this in the context of immigration – you know, with all the hyphenated Americanism nowadays, there’s one hyphenated American they always mentioned, and that’s Republican-Americans. They wanted ‘Republican-Americans.’ It wasn’t so much even about the welfare ... but it was more so that they wanted people to assimilate into our political values.” (Paul Bremmer, WND, Dec.11, 2016).

Lame Duck President Wounds Israel

Determined to give the nation of Israel one final kick in the butt on his way out the door, President Obama has sided with those determined to put the very existence of the Jewish state at risk.

The United States yesterday formally abstained from a vote on a U.N. Security Council resolution condemning settlement construction in the West Bank and east Jerusalem and insisting that existing Jewish settlements there “have no legal validity.”

“Our position is that there is one president at a time,” said Ben Rhodes, the White House national security adviser. “President Obama is the president until Jan. 20, and we are taking this action of course as US policy.”

U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, Samantha Power, explained that since 2011 when the U.S. used its veto to kill a similar resolution, “circumstances have change dramatically” and that the Jewish settlements

“put a two-state solution [with the Palestinian Authority] at risk.”

What has changed, of course, is that back in 2011 Barack Obama was about to run for re-election. Not so now — now he is free to abandon all those phony pledges of friendship and forced smiles.

Israel’s ambassador to the United Nations, Danny Danon, expressed his disappointment at the vote: “It was to be expected that Israel’s greatest ally would act in accordance with the values that we share, and that they would have vetoed this disgraceful resolution.”

Yesterday’s action followed a move Thursday in which the Egyptian delegation, which had initially sponsored the resolution, asked to indefinitely postpone action. That came after President-elect Trump and Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu issued nearly identical statements urging a U.S. veto.

An Israeli official told the Associated Press yesterday, “The U.S. administration secretly cooked up with the Palestinians an extreme anti-Israeli resolution behind Israel’s back which would be a tail wind for terror and boycotts and effectively make the Western Wall occupied Palestinian territory.” He called it “an abandonment of Israel which breaks decades of U.S. policy of protecting Israel at the U.N.”

The resolution is largely symbolic, but in international relations, symbols do matter. And this final bit of international mischief by Obama — even while basking on a beach in Hawaii — was intended to wound Netanyahu in a very personal way.

But it also deeply wounds the region’s only democratic nation and an ally. How is that good policy? (GOPUSA, Dec. 24, 2016).

Huckabee Slams Obama on UN Vote

Former Arkansas Gov. Mike Huckabee — enraged and referencing a “middle” finger and “backsides” — slammed President Barack Obama Friday for abstaining on the U.N. Security Council vote that condemned Israel for settlements in the West Bank and East Jerusalem.

“I’m so outraged I can’t even hardly contain myself,” the former Republican candidate told Sandra Smith on Fox News. “What Obama did today was extend a real nice final farewell and wave to Israel and Prime Minister [Benjamin] Netanyahu.

“He just bothered to use one finger in the middle of his hand to do it,” Huckabee said.

“This is the most amazing position he could have taken.”

He added that when President-elect Donald Trump takes over the White House next month, “the first thing he does I hope is send some jackhammers over to the Turtle Bay neighborhood in Manhattan and jack-knife the United Nations off into the river.

“This is an insult to Israel and every person who loves freedom.”

The Security Council voted 14-0 to declare the Israeli settlements to be a “flagrant violation of international law” and to have “no legal validity.”

The resolution demanded a halt to “all Israeli settlement activities,” calling it “essential for salvaging the two-state solution.” . . .

“When people use the term ‘settlements,’ they may think of the Israelis building a bunch of tents and mobile homes,” Huckabee said. “These settlements are communities and neighborhoods with schools and synagogues and shops and permanent structures, where people live and raise their families. And Judea and Samaria belong to Israel.

“Obama is saying that the Western Wall ought to be part of territory that’s given back,” he continued. “This is insane — so beyond anything that we’ve seen in 40 years. It’s just stunning.”

Huckabee, who has long attacked the United Nations for its anti-Israel policies, joined several congressional Republicans in calling for an end to federal financial support for the organization “if they’re going to do stupid and frankly idiotic things that are hurtful to any hope of peace. (Newsmax, Dec. 25, 2016).

Bigfoot? How about a fossilized giant foot?

News agency has photo of one in bedrock more than 22 inches long

You've heard of Bigfoot.

You've heard of ancient giants the Bible calls "Nephilim."

And you've heard of pranksters who sometime manufacture evidence of all kinds of things.

But the Sina news agency in China has published some photos of some really big human-looking footprints in bedrock reportedly taken last month by photographers in the southwestern province of Guizhou in a village called Pingyan.

They're hardly the only such giant footprints discovered around the world – prompting much speculation that giant humanoids once roamed the planet – interestingly, just as the Bible mentions in Genesis 6:4, Numbers 13:33, Deuteronomy 2:11, 2:20, 3:11, 3:13 and Joshua 12:4, 13:12, 17:15.

On August 24, a group of photographers detected a set of giant human footprints in the rock located in Pingyan village, local media reported. One of the footprints, which may date back to ancient times, is in the shape of a left foot that is 57 centimeters long, 20 centimeters wide and 3 centimeters deep.

Similar fossils have been found in Africa, the Americas and Europe. There have been some discredited, but others have scientific inquiries baffled.

Recently, WND explored a report of a living giant allegedly discovered by U.S. soldiers in Afghanistan. See last month's PF for article about this shocking discovery and cover up. Known as "the giant of Kandahar," it reportedly killed several soldiers before being done in by U.S. Special Forces. One eyewitness claims to have seen the corpse flown off in a military plane for examination in the states. (WND, Sept.4, 2016).

For more information on this topic, write for our free booklet "Return of the Nephilim."

In Genesis 6:1-4, we read: "The sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair, and they took wives of all that they desired and chose. . . There were giants in the earth in those days – and also afterward – when the sons of God lived with the daughters of men, and they bore CHILDREN to them" (Amplified Parallel Bible). Who were these "sons of God"? The Septuagint Version has this verse, "the sons of God (Alexandrian, ANGELS of God) having seen the daughters of men." Who were they? What does history reveal?

Josephus, in Antiquities of the Jews, says, "for many angels of God accompanied with women, and begat sons that proved unjust, and despisers of all that was good, on account of the confidence they had in their own strength, for the tradition is that these men did what resembled the acts of those whom the Grecians called GIANTS" (Jos., Ant., Bk.1, III, 1). Says the translator William Whiston, in a footnote, "This notion, that the fallen angels were, in some sense, the fathers of the old giants, was the constant opinion in antiquity."

Angels are called the "sons of God" in the book of Job: "Now there was a day when the sons (ANGELS) of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan (the adversary and accuser) also came among them" (Job 1:6). Did some of these angels rebel against God and have sex with women? Read the evidence and discover the astounding, mind-boggling TRUTH!

The Astounding Secrets of God's Holy Days

The annual Festivals and Holy Days of God are revealed in the Scriptures – yet few Christians observe them and follow pagan holidays like Christmas and Easter and Halloween instead! Isn't this preposterous and nonsensical?

Why do most Christians observe Christmas and Easter? Why did the church stop observing the Biblical holidays and replace them with PAGAN days which come out of Babylon and ancient Egypt? What is the real MEANING behind the Holy Days of God? What significance do they have for both Christians and Jews?

Why did God create and command us to observe HIS Holy Days in the Scriptures? Why did He give them to us? Are there vital lessons hidden within the Holy Days that we ought to explore? We all need to revisit the annual Holy Days and study into this profound subject. It reveals the MYSTERY OF THE AGES. The awesome meaning of each one of the holy days of Scripture is revealed in this treasure trove of revelation.

Yes, by all means, please send me the new book Mystery of the Holy Days. Enclosed is $20.00, plus $5 for postage and handling.

God's Appointed Times and Calendar Now Revealed!

Does it really matter when we observe God's annual Holy Days? Does it matter if we are just a few days off? There is an old saying, "Close only counts in horseshoes and hand grenades." But does it really matter if we get God's days right? The Word of God does tell we should observe His annual Feast Days as "holy days to the Lord" (see Leviticus 23). The Biblical holy days are obviously based on the Biblical calendar – the original calendar God gave to Moses and Israel.

It is serious business to keep an appointment with an official or human employer or a KING "on time," and to be punctual. HOW MUCH MORE IS IT IMPORTANT TO KEEP GOD'S APPOINTMENTS ON TIME? God's Word says, plainly, "The wages of sin is DEATH" (Rom.6:23). Are we going to obey GOD? Or go the route that "seems right" to a man, but ends in DEATH (Prov.14:12, 16:25)? How important is understanding God's time-table to you?

Yes, please send me your book on The Mystery of God's Calendar. I want to know the Real, genuine, honest TRUTH. I want to "prove all things" (I Thess.5:21). Enclosed is $15.00 plus $5.00 for postage. Please send it as soon as possible! Please send it to:

What is God's REAL Name?

God revealed His Name to Moses at the burning bush, but over the centuries its correct pronunciation has been hidden from view, lost, and today it is considered “unknown” by many and controversial by others. What is God's TRUE revealed Name? Can we really know His Name?

Almighty God thunders, “How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? Yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart; which think to cause My people to forget My name . . . as their fathers have forgotten My name for Baal [“Lord”]” (Jeremiah 23:26-27).

God declares in His Word, “Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved” (Romans 10:13). In Acts 2:21, Peter quotes Joel 2:32, “In the last days everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

But what IS that Name? What is God's name, in the original Hebrew language?

Exodus 20:7 says, "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name."

Many Scriptures tell us we should magnify and praise God's Name. But how can we do it, if we don't even know it?

The name of God appears 6,828 times in the Bible. The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has a name by which he wished/wishes to be known. This most holy name of GOD is written in Hebrew by the letters yod hey vav hey. This four letters name is called the Tetragramaton. But just how is that name to really be pronounced? Does it matter? How important is it that we say God's Name correctly?

God's Name Revealed!

Does God reveal His actual Name to us? The answer is YES! The evidence has been overlooked, ignored, and misunderstood by scholars and theologians and the whole world! In this book we will rediscover the TRUE name of the Almighty God, Creator of the heavens and the earth!

In Acts 2:21, Peter quotes Joel 2:32, "In the last days everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." What is His name, in the original Hebrew language?

Exodus 20:7 says, "You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name." Many Scriptures tell us we should magnify and praise God's Name. But how can we do it, if we don't even know it?

Remember that the name also means essential nature, character, reputation, and authority.

The name of our GOD and the titles by which he is known are extremely important and a casual use fails to communicate adequately the greatness, majesty, holiness, and grace of the one to whom we refer.

Moses (Moshe) asked God what he was to say when the people asked, "What is his name?" (Exodus 3:13).

"God said to Moshe, Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh [I am/will be what I am/will be],” and added, “Here is what you are to say to the people of Isra'el: ‘Ehyeh [I am or I will be] has sent me to you” God said further to Moshe, “Say this to the people of Isra'el: ‘Yud Heh Vav Heh (YEHOVAH), the God of your fathers, the God of Avraham the God of Yitz'chak, and the God of Ya'akov, has sent me to you.’”

The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has a name by which he wished/wishes to be known. This most holy name of GOD is written in Hebrew by the letters yod hey vav

hey. This is known as the “Tetragrammaton.” These four letters are the name of the Most High God!

How should this name be pronounced?

How can we praise His Name if we’re forbidden to pronounce it? How can we praise His Name if we don’t know how to say it?

The apostle Paul wrote, “For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, ‘How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things’” (Romans 10:13-15, KJV).

In this fascinating new book by William F. Dankenbring you will learn the TRUE NAME of God and why we should use it regularly in praise, worship, and reverence.

Sample chapters include:

- Chapter 1* – The Plot to Conceal God’s Name
- Chapter 2* – Searching for the Name of God
- Chapter 3* – The Burning Bush
- Chapter 4* – Shattering the Conspiracy
- Chapter 5* – What Is the True Pronunciation of God’s Name?

Did Dinosaurs Exist in Human Times?

Incredible as it may seem, records of dinosaurs appear throughout the history of mankind. Only in ancient records, they are generally referred to as “monsters,” “serpents,” or various other terms. Here are amazing accounts from early British history, Danish history, and similar stories, based on fact – not myth. These historical accounts disprove the evolutionary hypothesis that dinosaurs lived a hundred million years ago. They have existed in HUMAN history!

Special Literature from Triumph

Does God Heal Today? Thoroughly explores the question of Divine Healing, Doctors, Drugs, and Prayer for the sick. What about medicines? Drugs? Where does FAITH enter the picture? Why did Elisha, a powerful prophet of God, die of an illness, yet Hezekiah was given 15 more years of life? Does God always promise to heal? Why do some die? Was “faith” lacking? Or is there more to it than that? This fascinating booklet explores these and more questions.

The Triumph Bible Correspondence Course. At present, there are 16 vital lessons in our FREE Bible Course. It begins with Bible prophecy for our day, and shows the plan and purpose of God, the Millennial reign of Christ, Who or What is God, the True Gospel, the Origin of the Logos, and Satan the Devil, the Sabbath Day, and four lessons on the True Passover.

Letters from Our Readers

"I came downstairs early this morning (Wednesday) to news of Donald Trump's election victory. It seems that Almighty God does indeed move in mysterious ways and has raised up Donald Trump to this high office in order to fulfill His purpose and prophecy. Daniel 2:21.

"Is Donald Trump the 'he who restrains', according to 2 Thessalonians 2:7, 'until he is taken out of the way.'? How long will he have in power? It would be my gut instinct that Donald Trump will be there until God's Will is accomplished.

"There is a major prophecy yet to be fully accomplished in my view and that is Matthew 24:14 and Mark 13:10. The Gospel of the Kingdom of God has to go out around the world as a final, mighty, powerful witness to ALL NATIONS. Again using my own gut feeling, I believe this could and indeed will include the discovery of major archaeological finds such as Noah's Ark PROVING the Bible is true. Major new developments in microbiology will absolutely PROVE beyond doubt that life on Earth did not evolve, but was CREATED by a Master Designer. Mankind will be without excuse and will KNOW there is a GOD in Heaven, who controls the destiny of nations.

"Why would Almighty God choose a man like Donald Trump? Is he not flawed in character? Of course he is, just like King David of ancient Israel, who God said was a man after His own heart. Acts 13:22. Long before King Cyrus of Persia was born, Isaiah was inspired to prophesy that Cyrus would be raised up as God's servant and the instrument He would use to rebuild the Temple in Jerusalem. Cyrus was just another flawed human being as are we all. Isaiah 44:28; 45:1.

"I have myself been critical of some of Donald Trump's flaws in the past, but I have also been trying to examine some of my own just lately. All I can say is that there are things I have said and done in the past of which I am deeply ashamed and would be horrified if they were made public to the whole world. Who am I then to judge or condemn a man for doing and saying things I am also guilty of in my foolish past.

"Let us all pray that Donald Trump will be granted wisdom to make good decisions and that he will be given the time needed to enable God's purpose to be fulfilled, in preparing for the Messiah's return."

-- Nick Wood, England

"Haven't fully rehashed these numbers but –

"Barack Obama will be 666 months of age on the final date he leaves office.

"Trump will be 70 years 7 months and 7 days old on Inauguration day.

"2008 during the elections in that time the Dow fell 777.68 on Trumpets.

:This is now Hebrew year 5777 and Israel is 68 years old during the current elections.

7 TRUMPets 7 seals 7 bowls."

-- John Verterano, New York

"I am a graduate of Ambassador College 1962. Fired 1964.

"I've written you a long time ago. When you had recently moved to Omak, I spoke with your wife about 40 minutes (15 years ago?).

"This morning I read your article on my I-phone, 'How Have the Mighty Fallen!' A long history of the Armstrong debauchery. . . and their sin-sick practices.

"Ramona Martin was my secretary at the warehouse on Del Mar Street for about 3 ½ years. Herman Hoeh and Hugh Mauck destroyed my marriage in 1978 (5 children).

“As I write this letter to you I am listening to my radio and Donald Trump just made President of the USA and I thank God Almighty for this. I can only hope and pray that that our new President will remember that some very good Presidents in our past have been assassinated – Abraham Lincoln, John F. Kennedy and Ronald Reagan had two attempts on him. I can only hope that he (Donald Trump) will take all the precautions he possibly can and then double them. Yes, I know he has his flaws but so do we all and I believe Mr. Trump is the best candidate for the job at hand. My prayers are with our new President all the way.”

“I was so blessed to receive your last mailing of your inspired articles and was quite surprised when I read ‘A Voice in the Wilderness.’ I had not really known and understood the struggle your ministry has gone through, nor the origins of your doctrine coming out of the Worldwide Church of God.

“I have been a Christian for over 20 years and have found that, though there are many differences in your doctrine compared with, say, Southern Baptist, in my spirit I sense that what you teach is Truth, and I am grateful that you and your ministry exist. I believe God is behind your existence and to provide the vast amounts of doctrines (teachings) and knowledge, you do, free of charge, when other ministries are charging $20 per book, is a witness to the true anointing of God on your Ministry. Thank You So Much! And May God Bless You Richly! You remain in my thoughts and prayers! I share your Prophecy Flash and articles with interested inmates in my housing unit. Enclosed is a list of 10 more articles desired and a small donation of 2 postage stamps. I wish I had more to give you as you are giving to me the great gift of Biblical Truths not found anywhere else! Please keep ‘em coming!”

“I am not sure where to begin. At a point in my life that seems like ages ago I walked closely with the Lord. In August of 2014 I was devastated when I awoke and found my newborn son lying dead by my side. At that moment my faith was severely shaken, and since then has practically diminished. I turned to drugs and alcohol and a life of crime that eventually led to my incarceration just a mere six months after my son passed away. Since my incarceration I have questioned God’s existence, and at the belief that He does exist, why would He be so cruel to allow my son to be taken from me when I would have gladly given my own life for my son to be able to experience his. Why would a God who is love do that?

“I want to believe, and I want my relationship with the Lord to be restored, but I feel lost. I’ve tried praying a few times in the past couple of months, but I continuously find myself giving up over and over again. I don’t feel like I will ever get back to where I was. Will you please send me some literature that will help me with my faith?”

-- Texas

COMMENT: We are sending you articles on Prayer, Meditation, Walking with God, Overcoming, and 7 Steps to Conversion. I am also sending you articles which explain the purpose of human suffering and what God is doing here below – articles on Job’s sufferings, why Christians have trials and hardships, salvation, why you were born, and the 13 attributes of God. They will help open your eyes to the incredible truth and purpose of God and our potential destiny. Your son, though he is dead now, will live again, and have his full chance for salvation and eternal life in the glorious Kingdom of God.

“Enjoyed the Bible Study yesterday, via the Internet, which dealt with a review of ! the recent elections. Yes, I fully concur that, with Donald Trump winning the Presidency, God has indeed given us a reprieve regarding additional time for our preparing for the dark days ahead. Although totally missed by the world at large, God extended his mercy to those who recognize the ‘signs of the times’ – for which we are deeply thankful. This is now the time to bear down in drawing closer to God, to seek repentance and to more fully develop the mind of Christ within us. As we prove our commitment to God, he will more than provide for our spiritual growth and readiness for the Kingdom.”

-- Canada

“Wow! Today was a very amazing day for me! You wouldn’t believe the spiritual movement that is occurring here in captivity. When I first was introduced to your ministry it was four years ago and ever since, God has manifested a remarkable change in my life and for so many others who were once lost or ignorant to the Word of God. When I began the very first study of your material it opened vast new doors to my understanding of Scripture. As I learned, I began the mission of helping others find the true meaning of God's great plan of life, mankind, and of salvation. As I sent for more new material from Triumph, the more individuals would ask me where I had learned such knowledge. So I would lead them straight to the pamphlets and books you had sent me. At first, there were at least ten people who were hooked on your material, then it drew them to want to learn more, so they picked up a Bible and began a study of their own. Then I had moved to another location and as I'd order more material, it immediately drew in more people interested in what your ministry was teaching. Again this was at least fifteen people led to the Word of God through your material!

"Amazing how God uses us as vessels of salvation! Once again, I'm at another location and I'm getting settled in and all of a sudden, the Holy Spirit begins to weigh heavily on my heart. I had already passed on the previous books to others before I left my last location so as to lie fruitful of the blessings I'd received through God working through your ministry. As I was laying here on my bed I began praying for the lost people in this world as well as for family and for the ministries out there helping with the spreading of the Gospel. Then it hit me to really pray for the people here with me in captivity. I thought about how much I'd learned over the years about the Word of God and how it truly brought me closer to knowing Christ Jesus and allowing Him to change me from the man that I once was to the man I am now. Yet I felt ashamed of myself feeling that I just haven't led enough others to the place where I was with God. So then I said to myself, 'How can I do more work for God when I'm not very courageous at speaking to a crowd of people about the Word of God in fear of not being able to answer certain questions that may arise.' So I then thought, 'well, keep doing it the way God has been allowing you to lead others to Him for these past four years now.'

"So I ordered a few pamphlets from your ministry and wow! The minute I received it I sat down to read it again and one by one people came to me asking about the material. It was then that I realized that this is so much more than just helping one person find God, no, this is a breakthrough of God's anointing power working even in our most afflicting times.

"I sat here today and I just let God work through me and I told a man to put a mark next to the pamphlets he was interested in reading at the back of one of the Prophecy Flash books that I had, and do you know what happened? He took the book over to a crowd of young men and by the time I got it back there were over thirty book requests checked off!! God is great, is He not!! Through Triumph Prophetic Ministries God has been able to create a movement of Faith to the captives! Thank you Triumph, all praise be to God for your help and patience with me ordering so much material!"

-- Texas

"The article 'What Do You Mean, Walk with God?' in the Sept-Oct. Prophecy Flash really struck home with me and made me reevaluate my walk with my Creator. Most people never give this a second thought and we all should give this more consideration as the time of this age is very short.

"There are B.S. meetings held here and they are telling us how great the Muslims are. All I can say is that the Muslims do not read the Koran and know what it says.

"The good Muslims do not tell you that they say it is OK to kill girls that have pre-marital sex, all LGBT people, all apostates anybody that defames the name of the moon-god Allah. They also are known for the genital mutilation of the female genitalia. I am thankful that the real Creator God does not condone such depravity.

"Without God's blessing and help Mr. Trump will not be able to save this country. I say this because Mackdaddy has almost doubled the national debt in his timer in office and without the grace of God there will be an economic disaster that will make the Great Depression of the 1930's seem like a picnic. This country has degenerated like Israel when they were in Egyptian captivity.

"I know the Bible says in Isaiah that Ephraim will be a broken people in 65 years. Will we see this before there is great tribulation or will it be the start of it? When you think about Ephraim being broken, it should make us call on the Creator and ask for His mercy, would He please have mercy on us.

“It is hard to believe how divided this country is after the election. Before in my lifetime when a person conceded that they lost the election, it was over and done with. But it seems like the Democnatic Party will not let it go this time. It seems like there is no common sense left in this country. As the old saying goes, God asked Man if they wanted brains and they thought He said chains and they did not want any.

“Mr. Trump is right about Muslims because they want to destroy this country by superseding the Constitution with Sharia law and that is against our Creator.”

-- Charles Rearick, Ohio

“I am most grateful to you all your love and fraternal encouragement -even at personal expenses in postage to get ‘Prophecy Flash!’ magazine to me.

“I really love your thoughtfulness and care and other previous sermons, and Holy days audio free Bible Study CD recordings received in the past-

“Thank you so much for your immense thoughtfulness and caring concerns for spiritual growth.

“May the Lord continue to bless you abundantly with His peace and abounding providence in all your ways for all you are doing for me.

“May you ever increase in His goodness and mercies-even as we await His coming. I wish you in advance a pleasant and happy new year of service to our king.

“Finally, I will always crave your continued guidance, support and prayers regarding my job search and please kindly remember me in prayers regarding my desire to further my medical career in the US with a medical residency training – if the Lord remains away.

“I look forward to hearing from you at your convenience. Kindly keep me permanently on your mailing list.

“May the New Year bring us ever nearer and closer to the Lord and may we all be accounted worthy of the inheritance of the saints at His coming.” ”

-- Nigeria

“As I listened to our vice president, Mr. Pence, as he spoke yesterday evening it was a speedh of determination to fix and restore our nation back to what it used to be, once was, and at the closing he quoted II Chronicles 7:14, ‘If My people which are called by My name shall humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.’

“I pray for God’s protection over Mr. Trump and the people he chooses to work with him. With the few days Obama has left, what last evil thing is he planning to do?

“Thank you for the Prophecy Flash magazine I received the first of this month. What the Clintons have done is beyond belief, how they’ve escaped prison time is a mystery. Thank our Savior and Lord – He sees all and knows all – and their days of punishing is fast approaching.

“With love and prayers for your good health and well being.”
